14 JULY 2001

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

With new and successful albums already delivered this year by the Manic Street Preachers and the Stereophonics, and further sets promised by Catatonia, the Super Furry Animals and Tom Jones, it could turn out to be the best year yet for Wales. Adding to the Welsh assault on the charts, Bonnie Tyler has her highest charting album since she topped the chart with Faster Than The Speed Of Night in 1983, debuting at number 18 with The Greatest Hits. 50 year old Bonnie has been famous for half of her life, having first charted in 1976 with Lost In France, and the album includes all 11 of her hits among its 17 tracks. It sold nearly 11,000 copies last week, with, predictably home support for the valleys girl still strong, with Welsh sales expressed as a percentage for last week's total 50% higher for the album than the average for the market overall.

Travis had the number three album of 1999, when The Man Who Sold a Massive 1.41m copies. They appear to be heading for a similarly lofty place in the 2001 list with their latest album The Invisible Band spending the last four weeks at number one, selling more than 360,000 copies in total, including more than 35,000 last week. The Invisible Band is already number 11 for the year – and has had just the one single (Sing) lifted from it to date.

At one point, it looked as though Travis might be dethroned by Dido's No Angel. The number one album of the year takes advantage of a slow market place to climb 4.2 in though its sales are up only marginally over last week. No Angel has spent 25 weeks in a row in the Top 10 – something no other album has managed this year. It sold nearly 31,500 copies last week, and has sold 1,193,000 copies so far this year, putting it more than half a million sales ahead of runners up Hear'Say's Popstars (689,000).

Mancunian bands have come and gone over the years but James prove to have more staying power than most and return to the chart this week with their latest set, Pleased To Meet You, which is the chart's highest new entry at number 11. Pleased To Meet You sold more than 14,000 copies last week, and is the group's 10th charted album. They registered the surprise number one album of 1998 with The Best Of James, which has sold nearly 620,000 copies to date. The group's only album since then, Millionaires, started with a number two placing in 1999 and first week sales of 34,000, which have swelled to around 160,000 since.

With demand fuelled by TV advertising for the expanded 'four edition' of the album – not to mention the tour itself – Madonna's Music album explodes 57.29 this week, with sales expanding an impressive 122%. Ray Of Light rides its coattails and jumps 62.38 on a 69% increase in sales. The highest charting Madonna album remains The Immaculate Collection, and is still benefiting from the HMV sale where it is priced at £6.99, though diminishing stock at this price force it to slide 21.25 this week. The same offer and scarcity is behind the 13.26 slump of Eva Cassidy's Songbird among others.

COMPILATIONS

Capital Gold Legends' dash to the top of the album chart surprised many but it has proved more than a flash in the pan, taking the compilation crown for four weeks in a row, with sales declining broadly in line with the market throughout its reign. It sold more than 27,000 copies last week, to take its total to more than 130,000, enough for it to vault 18.2 in the year-to-date rankings. Tracks on the album include I Want To Know What Love Is by Foreigner and It Must Have Been Love by Roxette.

No change in the top three this week, the top three all retaining their places at the top even though they are all in decline. Of the newcomers, the biggest impression was made by Top of The Pops – Summer 2001, which enters at number four after selling 3,500 copies.

Confusion reigns over two albums entitled Pure Hip Hop, both mixed by Kiss FM DJs. The first album of that name was issued a fortnight ago, as a joint venture between BMG, Sony and Telstar. It was joined on the racks and on TV last week by a Warner/Universal album also called Pure Hip Hop. Many punters have seen one advertised on TV, decided to buy it and then accidentally come away with the other – and, though generically related, they are very different. The BMG/Sony/Telstar set was mixed by Shortee Blitz with his colleague DJ Swerve fulfilling the same role on the Warner/Universal set. As far as content goes, only Crooklyn Clan's Let's Get III and Lady of Rage's Afro Puffs are on both albums. The BMG/Sony/Telstar set retreats 9.17 this week, as its rival debuts at number 10.
