CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Atomic Kitten become the third act to register two number ones in 2001, and the third act to sell more than a million singles this year – joining Shaggy and Hear'Say in both categories – thanks to their cover of The Bangles' 'Eternal Flame', which debuts at number one this week. Its sales of nearly 142,000 are the highest for a number one for eight weeks, and gave the singles market a much needed 11% boost last week, though overall sales – at 987,000 – are below a million for the sixth week in a row. It also means that over a quarter of all Innocent's single releases have made it to number one; an impressive strike rate.

The Kitten's success prevents Destiny's Child from registering their third straight number one from their current Survivor album, with Bootylicious trailing by a margin of nearly three to one all week. The first two singles – Independent Women and Survivor – both opened with sales upwards of 100,000 but Bootylicious sold 56,000 to take second the second highest first week total for any disc on the label, being beaten by the 200,000 debut of Martine McCutcheon's 1999 chart-topper Perfect Moment.

For the first time in chart history, both of the top two places are occupied by all female groups, and Eternal Flame is the first song ever to have topped the chart for two different girl groups, having spent four weeks at number one for The Bangles in 1989.

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

For the third time this year, a Welsh group pins down a place in the top three of the chart. Following the success of the Manic's and the Stereophonics, Super Furry Animals make a big splash with Rings Around The World debuting at number three after selling nearly 25,000 copies. The success of the first single Juxtaposed With U, which reached number 14 last month, pushes the album a whole five places higher than their previous highest placed album, 1997's Radiator, while more than doubling its first week sales of 11,000. Although Rings Around The World does not make the same concession to the band's roots as their 2000 album Mwng, which was all in Welsh, it still got a welcome in the hillsides, topping the Welsh sales chart, registering nearly 15% of its sales in the principality last week, compared to an average of 6.7% for all albums.

Increasing its sales for the sixth straight week, with a 6% upturn when the market overall shrunk by the same amount, Destiny's Child's Survivor album is number one for the fourth time. The 13 week old album sold 31,500 copies last week, swelling its year-to-date tally to 442,000. Containing the number one singles Independent Women and Survivor as well as Bootylicious (which debuted at number two this week) it is the 10th biggest-selling album of the year but still has to sell more than half a million more copies before it can claim the title of being the group's biggest UK album from The Writing's On The Wall which, despite peaking at number 10, has sold 943,000 copies to date.

Although it sold less than 1% as many in Britain last week as in America, where early projections suggest it will be their second straight album to top the 2m mark in the week of its release, the 'N Sync album Celebrity has managed to give the group its first week sales were just over 12,000, which have since grown to 180,000.

The number one single this week is Eternal Flame by Atomic Kitten, the release of which was enough for Sony to bring out an compilation by The Bangles. Eternal Flame - The Best Of The Bangles sold more than 10,000 copies to debut at number 17. An earlier Greatest Hits package, released shortly after the group disbanded in 1990, reached number four.

Sisqo's fifth consecutive Top 15 single, Dance For Me, entered at number six last week but his new album Return Of Dragon made a modest debut at number 29 with just 6,000 takers last week.

Increasing its sales for the 12th time in 13 weeks (it dipped by one sale halfway through this sequence) OPM's Menace To Sobriety reaches another new chart peak this week. Released in February, the album reached the Top 200 for the first time in June and has since moved 175 129 98 71-40 37.

COMPILATIONS

A canny re-edit of its TV advert to remind viewers that Capital Gold Legends contains The Bangles' original version of the current number one Eternal Flame was enough to secure the album a remarkable seventh week at number one. It sold just under 24,000 copies last week - 1,000 more than new runner-up The Best Of Euphoric Dance - Breakdown Ibiza - to take the prize for what will surely be the last time (the Now That's What I Call Music! 49 juggernaut rolls into shops today and will, predictably, dominate the market). Cumulative sales of Capital Gold Legends are now 212,000 and it is the sixth biggest selling compilation of the year.

The Look Of Love, a Bacharach/David compilation, which has spent 12 weeks in the Top 20, rebounds 17-15 this week. It has sold more than 185,000 copies to date, including 9,000 last week. Coincidentally the compilation's advert often follows seconds behind Paul Daniels and Debbie McGhee's rendition of Close To You (for a Heineken advert), leaving The Carpenters' peerless version of the song to sound even better.

Completing a 14 week run in the Top 10, the soundtrack album Bridget Jones's Diary slips 8-11 this week. Its sales have slipped for 12 weeks in a row, although it still turned in a tally of more than 10,000 last week, to take its overall sales to 733,000. The new veteran in the Top 10 is Chilled Ibiza, the WSM compilation which first charted 11 months ago. It spent three weeks in the Top 10 then and 11 more earlier this year. It now logs week 15 in the top tier, jumping 11-5 this week.
