CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

SINGLE FACTFILE

A month after splitting up, Five register their 11th and presumably final hit. Closer To Me preserves the group's proud boast of having reached the Top 10 with each and every one of their singles, becoming this week's highest new entry at number four. But that position, and the 44,500 copies the single sold last week are both major declines on the 85,000-selling number one debut made by their last single Let's Dance in August. Both singles are taken from the group's new album Kingsize, which holds at number 38 this week. Kingsize debuted at number three in September, and has been in decline ever since, only improving its chart position once, jumping 37-27 after the group announced their disintegration. It will remain their current album for only a very short time - a Greatest Hits album has already been lined-up for release in three weeks time.

There is no change in the top three for the first time since April 2000, with Afroman's Because I Got High, Kylie Minogue's Can't Get You Out Of My Head and DJ Otzi's Hey Baby all holding their positions. They are all in decline - Afroman by 16%, Minogue by 25% and DJ Otzi by a mere 3% - but prove too strong for any of this week's new entries. While the Afroman record has yet to achieve a particularly massive sale, Minogue and Otzi's singles are both well into the year-to-date Top 10 - Can't Get You Out Of My Head being fourth with sales of 832,000, and Hey Baby being placed seventh with 588,000 sales.

Meanwhile, R&B/trap trio City High's What Would You Do is the only climber in the Top 40, having meandered 4-3-4-7-5 in its chart career. It topped 250,000 sales on Saturday, becoming only the 28th single to reach that milestone this year - a significant downturn on 2000, when 42 records reached the figure, and 1999, when there were 72 records in that bracket.

Five aside, the only artist to have a single debut in the Top 10 this week is Gabrielle. She follows-up April's number four hit Out Of Reach with Don't Need The Sun To Shine, a brand new track recorded for her forthcoming Greatest Hits album. Debuting at nine with sales of more than 23,000 copies, it is her tenth Top 10 hit, and her 15th Top 40 entry.

After consecutive Top 10 hits with their first two singles Clint Eastwood (number four) and 19/2000 (number six), Gorillaz settle for a number 18 debut for Rock The House, the third single from their self-titled album. And Otzi Town suffer a similar slip, debuting at number 20 with We Fit Together, having reached number three with Liquid Dreams and number four with All Or Nothing earlier this year.

The Backstreet Boys have reached the top 75 on import only once, hitting number 66 with Show Me The Meaning Of Being Lonely last year. They could do it again with Drowning, the US CD of which sold enough copies towards the end of the week to earn a number 96 debut.

Despite a dearth of new entries at the top of the chart, sales last week remained above the million mark, actually increasing by 1% thanks to increased traffic from schoolkids on half term break.

by ALAN JONES

There is no change in the top three of either the singles or albums chart this week. The latter list is still led by Steps' Gold - The Greatest Hits, Kylie Minogue's Fever and Andrea Bocelli's Ciel Di Toscana, in that order, with sales of 11 by anywhere between a third and a fifth. Steps suffer the biggest decline but the 98,000 sales achieved by Gold - The Greatest Hits are more than 30,000 ahead of Minogue's Fever, which also has a large lead over Ciel Di Toscana.

Having achieved their first ever Top 10 single at the fourth attempt with the current hit In The End (which reached number eight and rests at number 13 this week) Linkin Park reach another new high with their album Hybrid Theory climbing 8.4 on its 42nd appearance in the chart. The album first started selling on import exactly a year ago, and had already sold nearly 10,000 copies by the time it entered the album chart at number nine in May, but topped that last week and rises again after a 38% increase in sales week on week. With 481,000 sales this year (491,000 in total) including 28,000 last week, it will pass Limp Bizkit's Chocolate Starfish... to become the biggest selling 'nu metal' album of the year this week.

For their third album in a row, Pulp secure highest new entry honours on the chart, but while that meant number one debuts for 1995's Different Class and 1998's This Is Hardcore, their new album We Love Life has to settle for a number six debut. Although Different Class and This Is Hardcore both topped the chart, they did so in very different styles. Different Class was home to a trio of very popular Top 10 hits - Common

People, Disco 2000 and Mis-Shapes/Sorted For E's And Whizz - and sold 103,000 copies on its first week, and 1,132,000 in total. This Is Hardcore included their only other Top 10 hit, Help The Aged, and the title track (number 12) which managed to turn first week sales of 50,000, huddling to 188,000. Following the listless number 23 placing of the first single Sunrise/The Trees, We Love Life sold just 24,000 last week.

simultaneously entering the Top 10 albums for the year to date.

12 years after it was established, and just a couple of weeks after co-founder Rob Mitchell's death from cancer, Sheffield-based Warp has its second highest charting album with the Aphex Twin's Drukqs, which debuts at number 22. Warp's only higher charting album was 1994's Selected Ambient Works - Volume II, also by Aphex Twin. That album debuted and peaked at number 11 - but its first week sales were just 9,500, compared to Drukqs' 11,500. The latter tally, includes 813 copies on a quadruple vinyl set (dealer price £15) which is housed in a 12"x17" sleeve - the largest for a chart album, although the Fabulous Poodles issued an uncharted album in a limited 24"x24" sleeve in the late seventies.

While Andrea Bocelli remains at number three, two more classical artists, both Welsh, enter the chart - Charlotte Church debuting at number 24 and Bryn Terfel at number 49.

COMPILATIONS

Virgin/EMI take the compilations throne for the third week in a row but their Pepsi Chart 2002 album - champion for the last two weeks - slips to second place, ceding pole position to Now Dance 2002. The latter album - featuring 'dance' acts Atomic Kitten, Five, Geri Halliwell and Blue - sold more than 57,500 copies, and is the 13th Now Dance title to top the chart.

Its opening week's sales compare favourably to last year's equivalent (Now Dance 2001) which opened in the same week last year with 53,500, and the 1999 set (Now Dance 2000), which attracted 44,000 buyers when it arrived two years ago. Having released one Now Dance title a year for the previous four years, Virgin/EMI sneaked an extra one in this year, Now Dance 2001 - Part 2, which was released in March. It settled for a number two peak, despite first week sales of nearly 38,000. Although Now Dance albums' sales are dwarfed by those of the main Now That's What I Call Music series, they sell increasingly well, with the biggest to date being the aforementioned Now Dance 2001, which has sold more than 347,000 copies, beating the previous best set by the 297,000 sales of Now Dance 2000.

Aside from Now Dance 2002, there are three other new entries to the Top 10, helping the compilation sector to a 17% increase week on week. Top Of The Pops - Autumn 2001 is the leader, debuting at number eight with sales of more than 20,000. That equals the first week sale of July's Top Of The Pops - Summer 2001 and beats by 5,000 the first week sale of February's Top Of The Pops 2001 - Volume 1, although both opened higher at number four.
