CHART COMMENTARY

SINGLE FACTFILE

The Stereophonics enjoy the fourth and highest charting hit from their album Just Enough Education To Perform with Handbags And Gladrags. It debuts at four this week and beats the number five peaks of Mr Writer and Have A Nice Day and the 16 peak of Step On My Old Size Nines. The track, which was only added to the album last week, was written and originally recorded by former Manfred Mann vocalist Mike D'Abo and was a number 33 hit for Chris Farlowe exactly 34 years ago this week. Farlowe's rendition was closely followed by Rod Stewart for his debut solo album An Old Raincoat Won't Let You Down, and the Stereophonics' version stays true to Farlowe's version. It has certainly perked up Just Enough Education To Perform, which has advanced 78-29-25 in the last fortnight, increasing its cumulative sales to 700,000.

by ALAN JONES

While album sales bound ahead, singles remain below the million mark for the fourth straight week, with Daniel Bedingfield's Gotta Get Thru This enjoying an easy second week at the top despite a 26% dip in its sales week-on-week. It sold over 80,000 copies last week, ending up 44% ahead of Sophie Ellis-Bextor's Murder On The Dancefloor. The latter track gives Ellis-Bextor her second consecutive number two hit, although it does so with a considerably lower first week sale than Take Me Home – 55,500 compared to 74,500. Steps debut at number five with Words Are Not Enough/I Know Him Sr II to register their 15th consecutive hit air 14th successive Top 10 hit. It is airSoc...leif 13th Top 5 hit in a row, a sequence bettered only by The Beatles.

Two years after his last single The Millennium Prayer topped the chart and gave him his 122nd hit, Cliff Richard returns with Somewhere Over The Rainbow/What A Wonderful World. The record fails to become Cliff's 65th Top 10 hit however, debuting at number 11. As Millennium Prayer was in the first chart for 2000 and his new single gives

YEAR TO DATE VERSUS LAST YEAR:

JK: 51.3% US: 32.0% Other: 6.7% him his 2001 hit, the last year in which Cliff failed to chart was way back in 1978. That year and 1975 are the only no-shows by Cliff in a chart career which now stretches back more than 43 years.

Dutch act the Hermes House Band's Country Roads – a cover of the John Denver song that Olivia Newton John steered to number 15 in 1973 – debuts at number seven. It is easily number one in Scotland, where it is more than 20% ahead of Sophie Ellis-Bextor. Scottish sales accounted for nearly a quarter of its total. Meanwhile, Daniel Bedingfield is nine in Scotland, with sales there representing just 3% of his total.

The MoS-affiliated Incentive imprint's impressive boast of reaching the Top 40 with every single it has released remains intact – but only just. The label's 21st single, Light A Rainbow by Tukan creeps in just below the wire debuting at number 38 this week, just seven weeks after Course Bruv by Genius Cru reached number 39. Their highest placed single was Mario Piu's Communication (Please Pick Up The Phone), a number five hit in 1999.

MUSIC WEEK 15 DECEMBER 2001

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Gabrielle is closing the gap but not quickly enough to deny Robbie Williams a third straight week at number one with Swing When You're Winning, Williams' fourth solo album increased its sales eek-on-week by 9% to more than 212,000, and vaults to eighth place in the year-to-date chart with sales already of more than 700,000. In reaching that target in less than three weeks, it easily outperforms his previous sets Life Thru

A Lens (which took 29 weeks to reach that figure). I've Been Expecting You (eight weeks) and Sing When You're Winning (nine weeks). The latter disc, incidentally, will top the 2m sales mark this week while I've Been Expecting You reached the 2.4m mark on Saturday. Life Thru A Lens has sold 1.91m, meaning that Williams' overall solo albums sales have now topped the 7m mark.

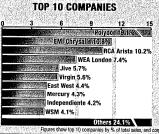

by ALAN JONES

Ithough there were no notable new releases last week, album sales jumped more than 20% for the fourth straight week. All but nine of the Top 75 albums did better than a week ago, exceptions being the latest by S Club 7, Blue, Five, the Corrs, So. Solid Crew, Britney Spears, Daniel O' Donnell, Mick Jagger and The Smashing Pumpkins.

Having delivered their chart-topping debut album Popstars a mere nine months ago with first week sales of more than 306,000, Hear Say have to settle with a 24 debut for Everybody, which sold fewer than 38,000 copies last week. The album includes a region of their million-selling single Pure And and the title track, which was a number four hit last week.

Record sales in America get a massive boost at this time of year from Christmasrelated albums. In the current Top 200 chart in Billboard, there are 18 such sets - and there would be many more but for the fact that catalogue albums are excluded from the Streisand, Garth Brooks and Destiny's Child. It is very different here, with just three Christmas albums in the Top 200. The Christmas Album by the Tweenies leads the way at number 49, while 8 Days Of Christmas by Destiny's Child is number 125, and Classic FM: Christmas Carols by the Choir Of Trinity College, Marlow is at 190.

George Harrison's death continues to increase sales for his work. The Beatles' 1 increased sales by 50% last week, and moves 73-64, while Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band moves 146-128 with a 48% expansion. Harrison solo albums naturally enjoy bigger increases but from lower sales bases. Only two are charting: All Things Must Pass jumps 168-93 and The Best Of George Harrison re-enters at number 129 with 209% and 153% increases respectively.

Three years after Mariah Carey's hits were compiled on No.1' s, Sony has unleashed Greatest Hits, which covers much of the same terrain and suffers as a result. No.1' s reached number 10 and sold nearly 600,000 copies, while Greatest Hits debuts at 46 with fewer than 18,000 sales.

COMPILATIONS

ales of compilations last week surged to 1,691,000 a 31% leap over the same week and week and easily the highest weekly tally of the year. They were 16.5% ahead of the same week in 2000 but 2.7% behind the record pace set in the comparable week in 2000, when 1,738,000 were sold. The biggest single contribution to the figure came, naturally, from Now That's What I Call Music! 50, which bounced back above the 200,000 sales mark last week. It sold 205,500 to take its 20 day tally to 704,000. That is a little ahead of the 691,000 that Now! 47 had sold at the same stage of its career last Christmas, but well below the massive 827,000 sales that Now! 44 had amassed at an identical point in 1999. Now!

oked like it might have stiff competition Hits 51, the BMG/Sony/Telstar/wsm rival which is neither the 51st volume in the set nor a 51 track compilation. One can only imagine it was given the numerical suffix it has to suggest it is newer and fresher than its rival. If so, the psychology did not work, with the album limping to a number 13 debut with 30,000 sales.

A year ago, the 2000 equivalent of Hits 51 – titled, confusingly Hits 2001 – started out with sales of 43,000, and in 1999 Hits 2000 opened with 84,000 sales. Incidentally, the competition between Now and Hits has led to some tracks being edited to fit more into the available 160m playing time these double discs allow. Such butchery is neither noted on the artwork nor subtle and could ultimately result in consumers avoiding these compilations to be sure of getting the hit versions they want.
