CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Its appeal barely eroded, Enrique Iglesias' Hero sold a further 98,000 copies last week and thus enjoys an extremely comfortable second week at number one. In a week when there were no mass appeal new releases, the chart took on a very old-fashioned look, with nine climbers and four non-movers in the Top 40, which embraced just six new entries. Overall singles sales slumped by 18%. The highest new entry, at number 13, is Dance For Me by Mary J Blige featuring Common. The last time there was no new entry to the Top 10, outside of the difficult Christmas/New Year period when new releases are rare, was on May 30, when the highest debut came from the Smashing Pumpkins' Ava Adore, at number 11. The last time the highest new entry was lower than it is this week was on January 6 1996, when Madonna's Oh Father was the top newcomer at number 16.

A couple of developing acts who take advantage of a very quiet week to enjoy their

SINGLE FACTFILE

At the age of 31, Mary J Blige is one of the chart's most experienced and consistent R&B stars. Making her chart debut in 1992 with Real Love, she has accumulated 21 Top 40 hits, the latest of which is Dance For Me, a collaboration with rapper Common which earns highest debut honours this week, entering the chart at number 13. It is the second single from Blige's current album No More Drama, following Family Affair, which peaked at number eight last September. Family Affair was not her highest charting hit but it was her most enduring, spending eight weeks in the Top 20 and racking up sales of 189,000. Its slow burning success has helped No More Drama to spend 22 of the 23 weeks since it was released in the Top 75. With Dance For Me giving it another boost, it climbs 57-53 this week, and has so far sold 185,000 copies.

PERCENTAGE OF UK ACTS IN THE CHART

UK: 60.0% US: 30.7% Other: 9.3%

biggest chart hits to date are the Mull Historical Society and Cooper Temple Clause. The former act, who, as their name suggests are from the Mull area of Scotland, have released three previous singles, improving their profile every time. They debuted with Barcode Bypass (No. 108, Nov. 2000) and then released I Tried (No. 77, Mar 2001) and Animal Cannibus (No. 53, July 2001). Their new single Watching Xanadu has been heavily supported by Radio Two, and makes its debut this week at number 36. Meanwhile, Reading-based Cooper Temple Clause, who reached number 41 with Let's Kill Music last September, debut at number 20 with their double A-side, Film Maker/Been Training Dogs.

Once the home to Jive Bunny, Music Factory Records now concentrates its attentions on its hard house offshoot Tidy Trax. Tidy Trax has released upwards of 60 singles, and has had 19 Top 75 hits without ever making the Top 40 – until now. It breaks its duck with Signum's What Ya Got 4 Me, which debuts this week at number 35, halving its original 1998 peak of 70. Tidy Trax's previous highest charting single: Hyperlogic's Only Me, number 48 in 1998.

by ALAN JONES

The Chemical Brothers' triumph in registering their third straight number one albums means that Enrique Iglesias is robbed of the opportunity of simultaneously topping the singles and albums chart. Iglesias' last album, 1999's Enrique, fell short of the Top 75, peaking at number 81 despite containing the number four hit Bailamos. His latest set, Escape, had been available for 11 weeks before making its chart debut a fortnight ago. Since then, however, it has jumped 68-21-2. It sold upwards of 40,000 copies last week, and expanded its sales by a lofty 356%.

Pink's 2000 debut album Can't Take Me spawned three Top 10 hits and sold 200,000 copies despite climbing no higher than number 13. Her current success with Get The Party Started – which has spent three weeks in the top three – has given fans an appetite for her new set Missundaztood, which sold nearly 22,000 copies last week and debuts at number four.

ALBUMS FACTFILE

The Chemical Brothers are the first contemporary dance act to register three consecutive number one albums, completing their hat-trick this week courtesy of Come With Us, which sold short of 50,000 copies following its release last week. Although that is a good total for the time of year and contributes to a welcome 9% expansion in the artist album market – the first this year – it is down on both Dig Your Own Hole, which opened with 63,000 sales in 1997 and the 70,000 start posted by 1999's Surrender. The latter album is their biggest seller to date, with sales of more than 530,000 thus far, followed by Exit Planet Dust, which has sold 314,000 (6,000 more than Dig Your Own Hole) even though it never charted higher than number nine. Both singles from Come With Us – It Began In Afrika and Star Guitar – reached eight, giving the Chemical Brothers back-to-back Top 10 singles for only the third time in their career.

Alan McGee's Poptones label registers its first Top 10 album this week as Your New Favourite Band by vaunted group The Hives jumps 18-10. The album is the only one of 38 releases on the label to breach the Top 75, and was listed as one of the albums of 2001

COMPILATIONS

Three new entries in the top four help the compilation market to an 8% increase in sales week-on-week, with The Best Club Anthems 2002 emerging as the new chart champion, with sales of nearly 30,000 putting it 1,600 ahead of the similarly themed Club Mix 2002. The Best Club Anthems 2002 is the eighth album in the Virgin/EMI series and the third to reach number one, emulating 1997's introductory The Best Club Anthems...Ever! and The Best Club Anthems 99...Ever! from two years later. The new album is the first to be simplified, ditching the "...Ever!" portion of its title, and contains 42 recent and current club hits in two mixes.

Included on The Best Club Anthems 2002 are IIO's Rapture and Belgian-based Italian remo Junior Jack's Thrill Me. Despite its just start, the album faces an uphill struggle if it is to retain pole position on the compilation chart next week as the second week in February is increasingly one in which love albums dominate. Two such sets land on the chart this week – WSM's Love So Strong debuts at four, while UMTV's Love enters at 10. These, a host of previously released titles and some late newcomers will all be competing for attention next week and should help to lift the market considerably.

Now That's What I Call Music! 50 slips 3-6 this week, losing its top five berth after 10 weeks. The album, which was the biggest seller of 2001, topped the 1.3m mark on Saturday. That total includes 89,000 sales this year, placing it second in the 2002 rankings behind the Ministry Of Sound set Clubber's Guide To 2002 which has sold 139,000 copies since its release four weeks ago, and which dips 1-3 this week.
