CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Westlife have now made the best start to a chart career of any act. Beating the Spice Girls' start of nine number ones from 10 singles, they extend their remarkable record to 10 number ones from 11 releases this week with World Of Our Own. It brings the Irish group's tally of 21st Century number ones to six – seven if we include I Have A Dream/Seasons In The Sun, whose four week stay at number one spanned 1999 and 2000. World Of Our Own is the third of their number ones to be penned by Steve Mac and Wayne Hector, who also wrote 1999's Flying Without Wings and Swear It Again. They also have the distinction of being the writers of What Makes A Man – the only single by Westlife to fail to reach number one. Mac has penned no other number ones, but Hector was also co-author of Peter Andre's 1996 chart-topper Flava.

Westlife's chart-topping debut ends Enrique Iglesias' four week run at the top with Hero, but the Spaniard's single sold a further 60,000 copies last week, enough to rob Kylie Minogue of the 10th number two of her career. Minogue's 21st Top 10 hit In Your Eyes has to settle for a number three debut

Topping the chart for the 10th time, Westlife nevertheless suffer the lowest first week sale of their career with World Of Our Own. The Steve Mac and Wayne Hector song sold just over 75,000 copies last week, far short of their highest week one tally of 292,000 with Uptown Girl last year and even 10% behind their previous lowest first week tally, the 83,000 registered by Fool Again in 2000. Westlife are only the second group in chart history to have 10 number ones, the first being The Beatles, and they have done so in a little under three years – a whole year faster than the Fab Four, although the singles had a shorter shelf-life than the Beatles's, and sold fewer copies. Even so, World Of Our Own raises Westlife's singles career sales tally to more than 3.6m. It will be their sixth number one to survive for just one week – it is certain to be topped by Will Young's cover of their album track Evergreen next week.

never previously had a number three.

Mis-Teeq register their fourth Top 10 hit from as many releases with B With Me, which debuts at number five. It follows Why (number eight), All I Want (number two) and One Night Stand (number five). All four singles are from their debut album Lickin' On Both Sides, which jumps 42-26 this week.

A have been around a long time and ride the rock boom this week to register their biggest hit by far. The Yorkshire/Suffolk band – who will forever have the first entry in British Hit Singles – failed to make the Top 75 with their first two singles, and saw the next six peak between 47 and 74, with the most recent, I Love Lake Tahoe, peaking at number 59. They beat that in spectacular style this week, debuting at number nine with Nothing.

R. Kelly registers his ninth Top 10 hit with The World's Greatest, a tribute to Muhammad Ali, which features in the biopic Ali. The boxer has previously inspired Top 10 hits by Johnny Wakelin (two of them) and Whitney Houston.

by ALAN JONES

The most obvious beneficiary of the publicity reaped by Brits nominees, The Very Best Of Sting And The Police sold upwards of 37,000 copies last week to take the number one slot. The album updates a five-year-old release which sold more than 540,000 copies but never ventured higher than number 11 in the chart. Exactly how much some other Brits-associated albums gained from the event is hard to judge, as the previous week's sales were inflated by Valentine's Day. Dido and Kylie Minogue – two awards apiece – obviously benefited, with Dido's No Angel advancing 7-2 and Minogue's Fever rising 8-4, with gains of 54% and 22% respectively. The actual effect was probably greater than that, since they've both had these increases in an artist album market which contracted 15% overall.

Jamiroquai's Jay Kay and Anastacia – who duetted on Bad Girls – were rewarded by record buyers, with Jamiroquai's A Funk Odyssey leaping 29-11 on a 38% increase in sales, and Anastacia jumping 28-13 with Freak

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Bringing to an end fellow Polydor artist Enrique Iglesias' two-week stay atop the album chart, Sting enters in pole position with The Very Best Of Sting And The Police. A rehashed version of an identically-titled 1997 compilation, it substitutes Brand New Day, Desert Rose and So Lonely for Let Your Soul Be Your Pilot, Russians and Roxanne '97 but retains the other 15 tracks, a fact which allow the two editions to be combined for chart purposes and therefore to be technically a re-entry rather than a debut. The album was well outside the Top 20 on early sales flashes and made remarkable progress through the week, being kickstarted (obviously) by Sting's televised appearance on the Brits, where he won an award for Outstanding Contribution To British Music, with heavy TV advertising further aiding its progress. It is Sting's eighth number one album, joining the five he had fronting the Police and two solo efforts.

winners of the Brits were also the biggest losers. Gorillaz failed to pick up any of the six awards for which they were nominated but their 3D spectacular helped their self-titled debut album to put on 107% and improve 63-30 as a result. Meanwhile, The Strokes' energetic performance and award as Best International Group helped Is This It to vault 44-18 with a 68% gain in sales.

Congratulations are due to Nickelback whose Silver Side Up won no awards but which reaches a new high, climbing 10-7, while Boards Of Canada's Geogaddi becomes the second highest charting album in the 12-year history of Warp by entering at 21. It is beaten only by the Aphex Twin's 1994 set Selected Ambient Works Volume II, which reached 11, and improves on Aphex Twin's most recent album Drukqs, which reached 22 last November. Geogaddi is the first Boards Of Canada album to reach the Top 75 and was album of the week last week in the Sunday Times.

COMPILATIONS

Started in 1995 by Bobby Sanchez as a backlash against trendy clubs where only cutting edge music is considered worthy of exposure, School Disco has since sold out venues such as Legends, the Hanover Grand and the London Arena and has spread its arms to embrace Dublin and Ibiza. It has helped to make trendy again many forgotten musical moments of the past and, as such, has spun off a couple of compilations.

The first – School Disco.Com – was released last October by Sony's Columbia label and was a modest success, reaching number nine on the compilation chart, and selling more than 70,000 copies despite – or perhaps because of – a track listing which included The One And Only by Chesney Hanks and The Final Countdown by Europe. Second album – School Disco.Com:

Spring Term – has proved even more successful and vaults 7-1 this week, as the "love" albums which dominated last week suffer huge post-Valentine's Day dips (Love So Strong slumps 1-14, The Love Album Classics slides 2-18 and Love lunges 3-21). School Disco.Com: Spring Term sold more than 19,000 copies last week to take pole position, beating by a few hundred the sales of the New Pepsi Chart 2002 album, which most expected to reach number one. School Disco.Com: Spring Term's 40 tracks include Hot Butter's Popcorn and Break My Stride by Matthew Wilder.

Brit Awards 2002 – The Album Of The Year improves 18-7 but, with the event now history, it has probably peaked and is therefore unlikely to match the achievements of the 2001, 2000 and 1999 albums, all of which reached number three.
