THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

A keenly fought battle for chart honours this week finished with the Sugababes' Freak Like Me narrowly retaining its early advantage over S Club Juniors' debut hit. Sugababes Freak Like Me hit eventually sold nearly 85,500 copies, about 1,000 more than their rivals' One Step Closer.

The Sugababes are the 10th all-girl group to have a number one – following the Supremes, the Three Degrees, Sister Sledge, the Bangles, the Spice Girls, All Saints, B*Witched, Destiny's Child and Atomic Kitten – and the youngest, with founding members Keisha and Mutya and new recruit Heidi Range (a former member of Atomic Kitten) all 8-years-old. They are, however, aged compared to rivals S Club Juniors, who are made up of Aaron (14), Calvin (13), Frankie (13), Daisy (12), Stacey (12), Jay (12), Rochelle (12) and the baby of the group, Hannah (11) – these eight being whittled down from more than 10,000 who attended auditions for the band. S Club Juniors' single would also have sold to S Club 7 fans last week, too – their elders appear on both interview segments and in a duet on bonus tracks accompanying One Step Closer. Nickelback's How You Remind Me continues its amazing Top 10 residency which now stretches to nine weeks. The single has sold more than a quarter of a million copies and is back in at number five this week. Its progress to date: 5-4-5-9-6-5-4-7-5

Edinburgh band Idolwild have been together for seven years, and register their first ever Top 10 hit this week, with You Held The World In Your Arms, which enters the chart at number nine. Of their four previous Top 40 hits, the biggest was the first, 1999's When I Argue I See Shapes, which reached number 19. You Held The World... is the first single from Idolwild's third album, The Remote Part, which is to be released in July, and has been helped in its chart quest by excellent support from Radio One, where it was played 23 times last week, although support elsewhere has been very modest.

Kosheen's accessible drum and bass sound helps them register their third consecutive hit this week. The group, who reached six with Hide U and 15 with Catch complete their hat trick with Hungry, which debuts at 13.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

On its 22nd week in the albums chart, All Rise by Blue finally climbs to number one. The R&B/boy band's debut set was released last September, and debuted at two but despite selling upwards of 100,000 copies on each of its first four weeks in the shops, it never made it to the top. It recently dipped as low as 40 but started to pick up steam again with the release of their latest single Fly By II. Ironically, its arrival at the top of the charts comes in a week when it sold just 23,917 copies – a total it has beaten on seven previous occasions, most spectacularly the week before Christmas when it sold 176,313 copies. Cumulative sales of All Rise topped the 900,000 mark last week – a fine total for a group perceived as a singles act and, in fact, more copies than all four of their singles have sold combined.

On a worrying note, All Rise sold fewer copies last week than any number one for five years. The last time a number one

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Lazy or not, it has taken X-Press 2 nearly 10 years to get round to recording their debut album but at least 10,000 punters are grateful that they did, and rushed out to buy the album – Muzikizum – on its release last week, enough for it to gain highest debut honours at number 15. The album has achieved the rare accolade of almost unanimous praise from the music press, being lauded as “a masterclass in dance dynamics”, “the first pretensions-free house album” and “the best album of the year”, and features collaborations with Yello's Dieter Meier and Steve Edwards of Presence as well as Talking Head David Byrne. Checking in at a little more than an hour in duration, it was also released as a lavish six-disc set on vinyl, though an ex-VAT dealer price of £17.98 translates into a retail price of £29.49 at regular margins, which may explain why this format accounts for a mere 3% of sales.

album sold fewer copies – and even then, only just – was in May 1997, when the Spice Girls' Spice topped with 23,734 sales. The only other totals below 25,000 in the last five years came from The Corrs' Talk On Corners (23,996 sales one week in July 1998, and 24,965 the following month) and Hanson's Middle Of Nowhere, which debuted at number one in June 1997 with sales of 24,428.

Incidentally, the week Blue arrived at number two last autumn, Anastacia's Freak Of Nature debuted at number 14. It also has been an enduring success, and it, too, achieves its highest position this week, moving 5-4. It should top the 600,000 sales mark next week, making it the second consecutive double platinum album in a row for the singer.

Ashanti continues her stealthy ascent of the chart, with her self-titled debut. Number one in America for the last three weeks, it has moved 72-45-31 here.

Finally, the sad death of Lisa 'Left Eye' Lopes in a car crash last Thursday prompted a mini-boom in sales of her debut solo album Supernova. The album was a flop, and peaked at number 183 last October but its sales jumped 415% last week.

COMPILATIONS

In a week in which five new entries pepper the Top 10, the compilations market manages a flat week while artist album sales declined 7%. Remaining at the top for a third week, Pop Idol – The Big Band Album suffers another 42% dip, with sales last week tumbling to just over 38,000. A more modest 17% slip in sales of Now That's What I Call Music! 51 – to 35,000 – sees it remain comfortably in runners-up position, while the newcomers are lead by Absolute Euphoria, the latest in the BMG/Telstar series. Mixed by Radio One's Dave Pearce, it enters at number three with 20,500 sales.

The bloom seems to have gone off the Capital Gold Legends series after just two releases. The first two volumes – Capital Gold Legends and Capital Gold Legends II – were surprise hits last year and sold a combined 800,000 copies. Capital Gold Legends sold 188,000 in its first six weeks, and Capital Gold Legends II topped that to 207,000. After the same amount of time Capital Gold Legends III has sold just 71,000 – 5,000 of them last week.

The film industry is in rude health, with UK cinema admissions up a staggering 37% in the first quarter of 2002 vs. 2001, and on schedule to reach 164m this year – their highest level for more than 30 years. And it is rubbing off on the compilations chart, where an unprecedented 12 film soundtracks are currently in residence in the Top 50, with All G Indehouse leading the way at number 15. One soundtrack that is not there is the About A Boy set, which is, of course, by Badly Drawn Boy, and is thus in the artist chart, where it climbs 9-8 this week.
