THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Despite a 45% dip in sales week-on-week, Elvis Vs JXL's A Little Less Conversation manages a very comfortable second week at the top of the singles chart, and has now sold nearly 377,000 units, making it the eighth biggest-seller of the year. It is still a very long way short of being Presley's biggest seller ever, however – that honour falls to It's Now Or Never, which sold 1.21m in 1960. We should also mention that of 18 Presley number ones, 15 have been published by Carlin Music, including It's Now Or Never, a remarkable ratio.

In its current form, of course, A Little Less Conversation has yet to appear on any album, though it will be included on No.1s, a new 'greatest hits' compilation slated for release in September. The album will include all of Presley's UK and US chart-toppers – and that is more than one might think because although he has had 18 number ones in the US and the same here, only seven are common to both countries, these being All Shook Up, (Let Me Be Your) Teddy Bear, Jailhouse Rock, It's Now

Oasis register their 17th consecutive Top 40 hit, their 15th consecutive Top 10 hit, their 13th consecutive Top Five hit and their fourth number two with Stop Crying Your Heart Out, which started well but fell further behind Elvis Presley's A Little Less Conversation as the week progressed. Its eventual sale of 85,500 was nearly 48,000 short of Presley's weekly total. It is the follow-up to The Hindu Times, which reached number one in April with first-week sales of 116,000. Both singles are taken from Oasis's new album Heathen Chemistry, which is released a week tomorrow. Oasis's failure to reach number one will forever be associated with football failure as both BBC1 and ITV concluded their coverage of England's World Cup campaign with a montage of memories over the song. In 1998, the Beeb chose to do the same over Green Day's Good Riddance (Time Of Your Life).

Or Never, Are You Lonesome Tonight, Surrender and Good Luck Charm.

Five singles into their career, Mis-Teeq are rightly regarded as the UK's premier R&B/garage girl group. Every one of their singles to date has reached the Top 10, with Why reaching number eight. All I Want getting to number two, and One Night Stand and B With Me both reaching number five. Their latest single, pairing Roll On with a remake of Montell Jordan's This Is How We Do It, debuts at number seven this week.

The most chronologically disparate chart duo of all time hitherto has been the oddball pairing of David Bowie and Bing Crosby. Bowie was 43 years, seven months and five days younger than Bing when they recorded a medley of Peace On Earth and The Little Drummer Boy for a Crosby TV special in 1977. It was eventually released as a single in 1982, and reached number three. They are usurped this week by the equally bizarre pairing of Essex girl Denise Van Outen and the Emperor of Easy, Andy Williams. Their re-recording of Can't Take My Eyes Off You – a number five hit for Williams in 1968 – debuts this week at 23. Van Outen is 28 and Williams is 74, having been 45 years, five months and 24 days old when Van Outen was born in 1974.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Their Now That's What I Call Music! collaboration has dominated the compilation chart for years but EMI and Universal's superiority has spread to the artist album chart where, for the first time ever, one or other is responsible for every album in the Top 10.

It is the sixth week in a row that Universal has been number one and EMI number two in the Top 75 market share figures but they raise their game to unparalleled heights this week, with the highest placed artist with another company (Sony's David Bowie, a former EMI and Decca artist) taking 11th place.

Universal's share of chart sales is 42.8% – the highest it has been more than 40% in four weeks – while EMI has a 20.2% share.

Universal provides seven of the Top 10 albums, with highlights including Eminem's fourth week at number one with The Eminem Show; Sophie Ellis-Bextor's Read My Lips getting third wind (it peaked at number four last September following the success of Take Me

Papa Roach have not only the cutest sleeve of the week (a sweet, funky and obviously happy baby, naked apart from a pair of headphones) but also the highest new entry, courtesy of their second album lovehatetragedy. The group's debut set Infest was a slow-burning but very popular album, which eventually peaked at number nine in February 2001, and has so far sold more than 360,000 units. lovehatetragedy – which, apart from first single She Loves Me Not, lacks the raps which had Papa Roach's earlier effort tagged as nu-metal – sold more than 27,000 units last week alone to secure a number four debut. She Loves Me Not dips from its debut position of 14 to 29 this week but continues to enjoy major support from Radio One, where it was aired 22 times last week, a total exceeded by only eight other songs.

Home, climbed to number three in January in the wake of Murder On The Dancefloor and explodes 50-2 this week after being repackaged with her latest hit Get Over You and a live mix of her hit with Spiller, Groovejet, added; and Top 10 debuts for Papa Roach (see above) and New Found Glory. The New Found Glory album, Sticks & Stones, debuts at number 10 with sales of nearly 12,000 units, easily beating the number 136 peak of their self-titled 2001 album. They achieve this despite little radio play for the upcoming single My Friend's Over You, though the song is currently one of the top requests on Kerrang! TV and Sticks & Stones is winning unanimously positive reviews from the increasingly influential metal press. EMI's triumvirate of Top 10 titles come from Queen, Kylie Minogue and Norah Jones.

Nickelback's Silver Side Up became the second album this year to sell half a million units on Saturday. Currently number 16 on the chart, Silver Side Up is, however, losing ground on Enrique Iglesias's Escape album, which has sold 548,000 in 2002 – 42,000 more than the Nickelback album. The Iglesias set sold twice as many as Silver Side Up last week, and drifts gently from seven to eight on its 21st consecutive appearance in the Top 20.

COMPILATIONS

Good weather and the World Cup kept record buyers away in droves last week, with all sectors suffering a consequent downturn. The singles market held up best, with 7.7% slippage, while artist albums dipped by 16.6%. Faring worst of all, compilation albums were off 20.5%, with even greater losses at the top of the chart. Capital Gold Rock Legends achieved the highest first-week sales for an album linked to the radio station last week, debuting at number one with more than 54,000 buyers. This week, it suffers a 1-6 slump with just 17,500 buyers in its second week – a 67% decline.

Whatever the reason, its savage slump allows The Very Best Of MTV Unplugged to step up to the summit, even though it sold a mere 26,000 units, a 29% decrease week-on-week. Featuring intimate performances of every Night by Paul McCartney, Here Comes

The Rain Again by Annie Lennox, Don't Look Back In Anger by Noel Gallagher and 15 others, it is the first MTV album to top the compilation chart, beating the number six peak of last year's MTV Select, the previous highest-charting album associated with the TV station. It is one of the increasingly rare single-CD albums to top the compilation chart, which has recently been dominated by double-disc sets. The only other single-disc albums in the Top 20 are Jumpers 4 Goalposts (number 15, WSM's World Cup cash-in) and Spider-Man at number 18. Spider-Man, incidentally, is not performing particularly well. After six weeks on release the album, which is stuffed with exclusive tracks by fashionable rockers including the current hits by Chad Kroeger & Josey Scott and Sum 41, has charted no higher than number 14, with sales to date of just 36,000.
