CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

It's sales down 39% week-on-week, A Little Less Conversation by Elvis Vs. JXL nevertheless enjoys an easy third week atop the chart thanks to sales of 81,500 – 83% more than the 44,000 tally posted by new runners-up Scooter. The JXL single had now sold more than 458,000 copies and moves to fifth in the year to date rankings. It brings to a close the first half of 2002, and of the 26 chart weeks to date, Presley's record company BMG has held the number one slot for exactly half that time, some 13 weeks, courtesy of Westlife, Will Young and Gareth Gates, as well as Presley. Runner-up Universal has topped the chart for just seven weeks.

Germany-based parent company of Edel has been through tough times recently, but its fortunes continue to improve, as its Anglo-German techno group Scooter, who moved 7.5 last week, now advance 5.2 with their cover of Supertramp's 1979 number seven hit The Logical Song. It is Edel's highest charting hit since October 2000, when the Baha Men

Almost a year after their debut album Camino Palmero started getting import action, Los Angeles rockers The Calling win highest chart debut honours with their introductory single, Wherever You Will Go. The single's potential was obvious when it too sparked import action – becoming one of the few rock singles to reach the Top 75 ahead of commercial release – when it climbed to number 64 earlier this month. On its first week as a bona fide UK release, it sold more than 40,000 copies, to earn a number three debut, a superb achievement for a new rock act, especially as radio support for the single is solid but not spectacular (it moves 32-25 on the airplay chart this week thanks to backing from the likes of Capital). Its success coincides with a major upturn for their album, which expanded its sales base by more than 96% last week, jumping 51-39 on the chart. In America, the album reached number 36.

reached number two with Who Let The Dogs Out. That was also Edel's most recent Top 10 hit, and, like Scooter, it debuted much lower (number 13) a fortnight before reaching two. Another small record label enjoying success is Blackburn-based pop/dance imprint All Around The World, which lands its fourth Top 10 single of the year thanks to Kelly Llorenna's cover of Taylor Dayne's Tell It To My Heart. Debuting at number nine, and following DJ Aligator's The Whistle Song (Blow My Whistle, Bitch) (number five in January), Flip & Fill's True Love Never Dies (number seven in January) and In My Eyes by Milk Inc. (number nine in May). Tell It To My Heart is Llorenna's first major solo hit, though she also fronted the Flip & Fill hit and an earlier All Around The World Top 10 hit, Set Free by N-Trance. Llorenna is also vocalist on the upcoming N-Trance/All Around The World single Forever, which is also expected to chart.

After returning with the number six hit (I Wish I Knew How It Would Feel To Be) Free/One last November, the Lighthouse Family's form has dipped. The follow-up Run reached number 30 in February, and their latest single, Happy, debuts at 51, their lowest placing since 1995, when their first single Lifted (later to reach number four) initially peaked at 61.

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Nine years after his last solo album Fate Of Nations peaked at number six, former Led Zeppelin singer/songwriter Robert Plant returns. The 53-year-old Brummie's new Dreamland album – a covers set featuring studio interpretations of Bob Dylan's One More Cup Of Coffee, Tim Rose's Morning Dew and seven others he performed on his 2001 tour – sold more than 10,000 copies last week to debut at number 20. Oddly enough, although no fewer than eight consecutive Led Zeppelin albums reached number one, the last four selections featuring the group all fell short of the Top 20. By contrast, although Plant has never had a solo number one (Pictures At Eleven peaked at number two behind ABC's The Lexicon Of Love in 1982) all seven of his solo albums have reached the Top 20, as have two collaborations with former Led Zeppelin colleague Jimmy Page.

Extending its stay atop the albums chart to five weeks, The Eminem Show sold more than 44,000 copies last week to take its overall tally to an impressive 455,000. It is selling at a faster rate than any rap album including Eminem's own previous pacesetter, The Marshall Mathers LP, a 2000 release which sold 258,000 copies in a comparable period, and took more than eight weeks to sell as many as The Eminem Show has to date.

Summer sales – especially the latest HMV sale launched on Thursday – cause major distortion of the chart this week. The main beneficiary of price slashing (which also helped, among others, Jennifer Lopez's J To A Lo – The Remixes to a 26-7 climb, Madonna's Greatest Hits – Volume 2 to a number 22 re-entry and Lionel Richie's Back To Front to a 77-28 improvement) is Fatboy Slim, whose Between The Gutter And The Stars has been nowhere near as successful as its million-selling predecessor You've Come A Long Way Baby. But a starring role in HMV's TV advertising and a £2.99 price tag produced explosive growth in sales of the album last week. The album, which has never been higher than number eight, jumps 144-12, with sales rocketing 1152% week-on-week from 1,168 to 14,630. Needless to say, the overwhelming majority of those sales came from HMV.

Mis-Teeq's debut album Lickin' On Both Sides makes a bigger leap, moving 146 10.

COMPILATIONS

Elsewhere in this week's issue, we extend congratulations to All Around The World on its fourth Top 10 hit of the year. All four of those hits (by Kelly Llorenna, Milk Inc., Flip & Fill and DJ Aligator) appear on Clubland – The Ride Of Your Life, a collaboration with Universal Music Television, which debuts impressively this week. Exploding out of the box with sales of nearly 47,000 – slightly more than twice as many as new runner-up and erstwhile number one The Very Best Of MTV Unplugged – this chart-topping double disc set includes many other AATW releases. Confusingly, three upcoming releases called Forever (by N-Trance, Dee Dee and Trinity-X) are featured, as is the original English language version of Kiss Kiss, by American Stella Soleil.

Newspaper hype ahead of the Queen's

Golden Jubilee celebrations suggested that the Party At The Palace compilation and its classical equivalent Proms At The Palace would be among the all-time best sellers. They both hit the shops last week and sold somewhat less well than speculated. Including Paul McCartney and Brian Wilson, Party At The Palace attracted nearly 17,000 buyers to debut at six, while Proms At The Palace – featuring Kiri Te Kanawa the BBC Symphony Orchestra and Thomas Allen – sold fewer than 4,000 units to debut at 26.

The World Cup is over, and with it the sales potential of the many football-themed compilations. All suffered huge declines last week, even before Brazil took the trophy. The only ones retaining Top 50 places are Jumpers 4 Goalposts and Best Unofficial Footie Anthems Ever.
