THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

BMG registers its seventh consecutive week at number one, and its 16th week (out of 28) so far this year, as Gareth Gates debuts in pole position with Anyone Of Us (Stupid Mistake). Gates' single also provides, S Records, with its fifth number one from six releases – the only 'failure' being Westlife's last single Bop Bop Baby.

Five years ago, Anglo/German techno group Scoter's single The Age Of Love fell just short of the Top 75. The follow-up, the ludicrous How Much Is The Fish? fared even worse, missing the Top 200 altogether. Although the group had continued success in France, their label Edel did not release any of their singles in the UK – until the Logical Song, which justified Edel's faith by rebounding to number two on its fifth straight week in the Top 10, while topping the 200,000 sales mark cumulatively. The record sold a best yet 49,000 copies last week, and has thus far moved 7-5-2-4-2. It is one of those records which reflects the north-south divide on music. In London, it sold only 38% of what

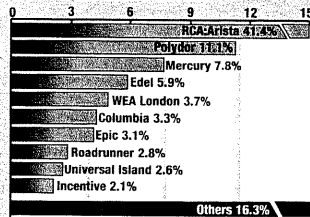

Two days after celebrating his 18th birthday Gareth Gates had good reason for a celebratory shandy on Sunday when his second single Anyone Of Us (Stupid Mistake) debuted at number one. Gates topped the chart for four weeks in March/April with his debut disc, a cover of Unchained Melody, becoming the 11th youngest solo chart topper of all time. He is now the fourth youngest artist to have two number ones, after Helen Shapiro, Donny Osmond and Billie. Although the

SINGLE FACTFILE

241,000 copies Anyone Of Us sold last week is far fewer than the 850,000 opening week tally of Unchained Melody, it is more than the 177,000 debut made by Pop Idol rival and friend Will Young's second single Light My Fire last month. Unchained Melody took a 49.71% share of the singles market the week it was released, and outsold the number two single by nearly 13-1. Anyone Of Us had a 25.11% share of sales and outsold the number two single by nearly five to one.

year, Ashanti reached six augmenting Ja Rule's rap on Always On Time in February and four in April featuring on Fat Joe on What's Luv. She lands her introductory solo hit this week, debuting at number four with Foolish, a song with which she recently spent 10 weeks at number one on Billboard's US Hot 100.

It is more than two years since UK-based Canadian Bryan Adams last had a hit, as featured vocalist with dance outfit Chicane, topping the chart with Don't Give Up. Adams debuts at number five with Here I Am, this week, the first single from his soundtrack for the film Spirit (Stallion Of The Cimarron). It is his 34th hit in all, and his highest charting solo single since Have You Ever Really Loved A Woman reached number four more than seven years ago.

Jamiroquai register their 21st hit this week, debuting at number 31 with Corn Of The Earth. It is the fourth and least successful single from their number one album A Funk Odyssey, following the number five success of Little L, You Give Me Something, which reached number 16, and the number 14 hit Love Foolosophy. A Funk Odyssey has sold 725,000 copies since its release last September, and climbs 53-47 this week.

MUSIC WEEK 20 JULY 2002

COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

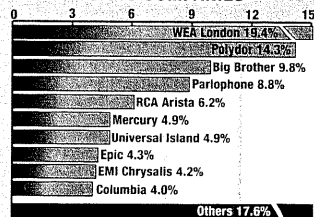

The Red Hot Chili Peppers' By The Way sold more than 134,000 copies last week to debut at number one. That is the third highest weekly tally of the year, trailing only the 230,000 opening of Oasis' Heathen Chemistry the week before, and the 228,000 start made by Eminem's The Eminem Story six weeks ago. By The Way is the first rock album by a US group to top the chart since Slipknot's Iowa last September and the first number one album for Warner Bros since REM's Reveal some 14 months ago.

Produced by Rick Rubin, the album has been widely praised, with critics noting that 'band has included more mellow tracks previously, rather than trying to match the style of many nu-metal bands. Early indications suggest the album will also top the US chart, and add several million sales to their impressive tally of nearly 26m album sales worldwide from three albums since joining Warner Bros from EMI – a total which includes 8.86m copies of 1991's Blood Sugar Sex Magick, 4.6m copies of One Hot

Minute (1995) and 12.5m copies of Californication (1999)

A 67% dip in sales to just over 76,000 copies means Heathen Chemistry by Oasis

The eagerly awaited follow-up to 1999's Californication – their most successful album ever with UK sales of 771,000 – By The Way was always going to be a big hit for the Red Hot Chili Peppers but the stakes were raised still further by the number two singles chart success of the title track, and more than 134,000 record buyers duly flocked to record shops last week to purchase the album. That is far and away the biggest first week sale in the group's history, and earns them their first ever number one album. Although Californication is their top seller, it only reached number five. Their highest charting album hitherto was One Hot Minute, which sold a fairly disappointing 18,500 copies the week it was released in 1995 but nevertheless managed a number two debut, being denied top billing only by Blur's The Great Escape, which sold a significantly more substantial 127,500 copies.

already the 15th biggest seller of the year.

Meanwhile, the rare spectacle of an all rock top three is completed by the arrival of much-vaunted Aussie band the Vines' debut album Highly Evolved in third place. Selling a little over 26,000 copies last week, the album contains the Vines' two hit singles Highly Evolved (number 34 in April) and Get Free (number 22 in June). The Sydney band are signed to Heavenly Records, which is going through a purple patch at the moment, having topped the chart for a fortnight in May with its Doves album The Last Broadcast.

Jimi Hendrix charted six albums before his premature death in 1970 and has added a further 22 since, the latest being Voodoo Child – The Collection, which debuts this week. It is the seventh set of the virtuoso's work to chart in the last decade – and instantly equals his highest placing in that period, matching the number 10 peaks previously registered by 1994's Blues and the 2000 re-promotion of Experience Hendrix.

COMPILATIONS

The runaway victor of the compilation chart for the third week in a row, the Universal Music Television/AATW collaboration Clubland: The Ride Of Your Life is showing impressive staying power. It has defied a shrinking compilation market two weeks in a row, increasing its sales while the sector as a whole has diminished. It sold nearly 47,000 copies on its debut, taking a 6.7% share of the overall market. It increased its sales by 8.4% to more than 50,750 the following week, while the market contracted 3.9%, making its share 7.5%. It fared even better last week, posting sales of nearly 52,500 – a 3.4% rise at a time when the market dwindled by 14.6%. Its share of the market rose to an impressive 9.1%.

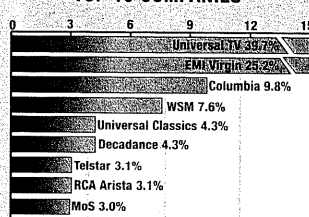

In just 20 days, the album – which includes current chart hits like Forever by e Dee and Just A Little by Liberty X among its 40 tracks – has sold a little over 150,000 copies, making it the sixth biggest selling album in the sector thus far this year. Even if its sales dip 30% next week, it will move into third place for the year, behind only Now! 51 (635,000 sales) and Pop Idol – The Big Band Album (372,000).

There are just two new arrivals in the Top 20. EMI/Virgin's The Best Sixties Summer Party...Ever! debuts at number six with nearly 14,000 sales while the unlikely combination of Soft Wave, Joyce and Madrid de Los Austrias earn a number 10 berth for the Decadence's Pure Global Chillout with sales of 10,500. There is also one big mover in Party In The Park 2002, which jumps 10-4 on a 28.9% increase in sales. Despite its title the album – which features Gareth Gates and myriad others who participated in the charity concert for the Prince's Trust – consists of studio recordings. The concert itself took place only eight days ago.
