CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

BMG rules the chart for the eighth straight week, and Gareth Gates is top for the second week in a row, though sales of his single Anyone Of Us (Stupid Mistake) are off 56% to just over 105,000. In 13 days, the single has already sold more copies than Pop Idol's rival, friend and victor Will Young's second single, Light My Fire, has managed in eight weeks. Despite its decline, Anyone Of Us easily remains number one, selling more than twice as many copies as Scooter's The Logical Song, which is number two for the second week in a row and the third time in all, after selling a further 43,500 units to raise its seven-week sales tally to a quarter of a million. While Pop Idol Gates continues at number one, Demi Holborn – who won GMTV's Tot Stars, a juvenile variation on the theme in May – joins him in the chart, debuting at number 27 with her version of the New Seekers' 1971 chart topper I'd Like To Teach The World To Sing. With more than 116,000 votes out of a total of around 200,000, the nine-year-old from

SINGLE FACTFILE

With 13 previous teamings – Kiki Dee, John Lennon, Millie Jackson, Dionne & Friends, Cliff Richard, Jennifer Rush, Aretha Franklin, George Michael, Eric Clapton, RuPaul, Marcella Detroit, Luciano Pavarotti and LeAnn Rimes – Elton John is the chart's most prolific collaborator. He is also the most prolific source of charity hits, pledging royalties from more than a dozen hits to his own AIDS fund, while handing over his cut from Britain's biggest-selling single of all time – 1997's Candle In The Wind remake – to the Princess Diana Memorial Fund. His latest single is both a partnership and a charity record, a new version of his debut hit Your Song, pairing him with operatic tenor Alessandro Safina to benefit the Sports Relief charity. The single debuts at number four, comfortably beating the peak of the original, which reached number seven in 1971.

TOP CORPORATE GROUPS

Figures show top 10 companies by % of total sales of the Top 75; and corporate group shares by % of total sales of the Top 75

PERCENTAGE OF UK ACTS IN THE CHART

UK: 56.0% US: 30.7% Other: 13.3%

youngest Welsh child to chart – beating the pre-teen hits of Charlotte Church and Aled Jones – though not the youngest female soloist in chart history, as she is a great deal older than Natalie Casey, who was just three when she charted with Chick Chick Chicken (Lay A Little Egg For Me) in 1984. Holborn's single won big support from Wales and the West Country, which accounted for 7% of all singles sold last week but for 25% of her sales.

Meanwhile, highest entry honours go to Flip & Fill, whose Shooting Star debuts at number three to provide Blackburn indie label All Around The World with its fifth and biggest Top 10 hit of the year, from just six releases. The one which did not make the Top 10 – Mad Donna's Wheels On The Bus – also did well, reaching number 18.

After 11 hits with Destiny's Child, Beyonce's first solo hit Work It Out (from the Austin Powers film Goldmember) debuts at number seven, providing her ninth straight Top 10 hit.

Finally, I Get Along by the Pet Shop Boys' 35th hit – a record for a duo – but its number 18 placing is their worst since 1991's Was It Worth It?

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS ALBUMS

CHART COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

The top three records on the albums chart are by rock acts for the second straight week, with US veterans the Red Hot Chili Peppers remaining at number one ahead of Oasis, and Scots band Idlewild arriving at number three to replace The Vines, whose Highly Evolved set tumbles heavily 3-19. The Red Hot Chili Peppers' album sold more than 72,000 units last week, and sprinted past the 200,000 sales mark in less than 13 days – a feat which took their last album, Californication, 30 weeks to achieve in 1999. With airplay for her debut solo hit Foolish increasing rapidly, and the track holding up well on the singles chart, where it drifts gently 4-5, Alti's self-titled debut album enters the Top 10 for the first time, surging 11-4, with sales for the sixth week in a row, and improving 36% week-on-week. The album, which has sold more than 150,000 units so far, debuted at number 72 in April and has been selling steadily ever since.

ALBUMS FACTFILE

After seven years together, Edinburgh band Idlewild have their best week yet, providing the chart's highest new entry with their third album, The Remote Part, which debuts at number three this week after selling more than 31,000 units. Housing their two biggest hits to date – You Held The World In Your Arms, which got to number nine in May and American English, a number 15 hit a fortnight ago – the album easily eclipses their earlier full-length sets 100 Broken Windows (number 15 in 2000 with total sales of 64,000) and the introductory Hope Is Important, which peaked at number 53 in 1998, and sold 47,000 units. A mini-album, predated Hope Is Important, and sold about 18,000 units. The upswing in Idlewild's fortunes has coincided with Radio One's new found fondness for the band, which has resulted in A-listings for both The Remote Part singles.

Hayes' debut solo album dipped out of the Top 40 but has been resurgent since his second single Strange Relationship started getting major airplay support a month ago. Since then, the album has jumped 43-36-25-12, though it is also being helped considerably by premature price-cutting, retailing at just £8.99 in HMV's current sale, while WH Smith's price point of £9.99 can effectively be reduced to an unheard of £7.49 by purchasing the album and three identically priced discs in the retailer's current "four for three" offer.

Faring better than his last three albums (one live, one studio, one "best of"), Bryan Adams' soundtrack set Spirit: Stallion Of The Cimarron debuts at eight with nearly 18,000 sales.

It has been a long and tough haul to UK success for Flaming Lips, whose first 10 albums all fell short of the charts. Their 11th, The Soft Bulletin, won rave reviews and finally gave them a toe-hold on the UK album chart in 1999, peaking at number 39. But their 12th – Yoshimi Battles The Pink Robots – really signals their arrival, debuting this week at number 13, its lofty debut helped by a recent series of sold-out gigs across the UK and promising early exposure for the upcoming single Do You Realise, which debuts at number 50 on the airplay chart.

COMPILATIONS

That big shadow you see over the rest of the compilation chart is the latest release in the all-conquering Now That's What I Call Music! series, which unleashed Now! 52 – the second of 2002's offerings in the thrice-annual series – today (Monday), and which should dominate the chart for the next few weeks. That will inevitably mean an end to the extremely strong reign of Clubland – The Ride Of Your Life, which has had four stonking weeks at number one.

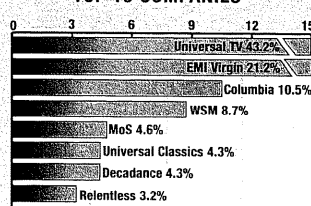

The album – a Universal Music TV/All Around The World collaboration – sold a further 40,000 units last week to bring its 27-day sales tally to more than 190,000. That is enough to make it the third biggest seller of the year, trailing only Pop Idol – The Pop Idol Band Album (374,000 sales) and Now! 41,000). The secret of Clubland's success when there are many other releases with larger budgets and more stellar track listings is hard to determine, though it does include a larger percentage of very obvious commercial cuts popular in the north of England, Scotland and Ireland rather than the type of dance tracks which draw most of their support from the south.

One of the victims of the continuing success of Clubland is Universal Music Television's own Clubmix Ibiza 2002, which debuts at number two this week but was soundly whipped by its stablemate, registering fewer than 17,000 sales. With Now! 52 out, Clubmix Ibiza 2002 will get no second chance. Last year's Clubmix: Ibiza album had a significantly bigger first week – selling more than 31,500 units – but also had to settle for a number two peak, as it went head to head with Now! 49, which beat it by a margin of greater than nine to one.
