CHART COMMENTARY

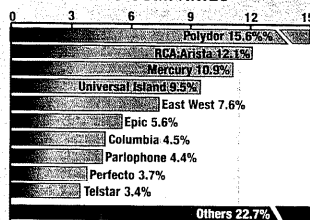

by ALAN JONES

The third new UK act to launch their chart career with a number one single this year – the others were Pop Idol stars Will Young and Gareth Gates – Blazin' Squad sold more than 52,500 copies of Crossroads last week. Made up of 10 16-year-old schoolboys from North London, they trump outgoing chart champs Sugababes (two 17-year-olds and one 19-year-old) to become the youngest group to have a number one since familial trio Hanson's three-week reign with Mmm Bop in 1997. Blazin' Squad's single sold nearly 6,000 more copies than Sugababes' Round Round last week, thereby robbing it of a second week at the top. On a more whimsical note, that's the first time that the past four number ones have had for four, three, two and one week respectively, only the second such descending sequence in chart history. It first happened in 1961, when the sequence was started by Elvis Presley's Surrender. The latest sequence, coincidentally, began when Presley's A Little Less Conversation spent four weeks on top.

Superstar DJ Paul Oakenfold is 39 on Friday and gets an early birthday present in the form of a number six debut for his single Starry Eyed Surprise. Featuring vocals from Crazy Town's Shifty Shellshock, it is the second single from Oakenfold's Bunkka album, following the their 12-inch-only release Standard Flow peaked at number 78. Crossroads established a small early advantage over Sugababes' Round Round and increased it steadily all week, eventually winning the battle for chart honours comfortably after selling more than 52,500 copies, some 12.5% more than its nearest rival. Even so, Crossroads sold fewer copies on its first week in the shops than all but one of this year's previous 18 number ones.

number 16 hit Southern Sun, although Oakie's biggest hit thus far is the Big Brother Theme, a number four smash in 2000 credited to Element Four.

Her mum knows her as Shari Watson, but Dr Dre's latest protégé prefers to go under the name Truth Hurts and her debut single is Addictive, which, with a little help from Rakim, debuts at number three this week. At a time when there's an historically high number of collaborations between singers and rappers, it is hip-hop veteran Rakim's first chart appearance since 1997's Guess Who's Back, which itself represented his return after an earlier absence of more than eight years.

As a member of Five, Abs had 11 consecutive Top 10 hits, the last of which was Closer To Me, which reached number four last November. He furthers his 100% Top 10 record by debuting at number four this week with his first solo single, What You Got. He is the first member of Five to release a single since their demise.

by ALAN JONES

Although overshadowed by Eva Cassidy's chart-topping Imagine, Toploader's second album Magic Hotel sold upwards of 28,000 copies last week to earn a number three debut. More impressively – especially as the introductory single Time Of My Life recently managed to reach only number 18 – that is a higher position than ever scaled by Toploader's million-selling debut album Onka's Big Moka. Spawning a succession of hit singles, most notably Achilles Heel and the long-running Dancing In The Moonlight, Onka's Big Moka debuted at number five with first-week sales of nearly 33,000, and reached its peak position of four some 35 "s" later.

loader are rightly regarded as one of Sony's current top UK acts and Alison Moyet held similar status in her Eighties heyday, topping the chart with Alf in 1984 and reaching number two with the 1987 follow-up Raindancing. But Moyet was "let go" after her 1994 album Essex, which climbed no higher than number 24 and sold only 22,000 copies. Her first album of new material since that time, Hometown has spawned no singles thus

Almost six years after her premature death from cancer, and 18 months after Songbird topped the chart, Eva Cassidy is back at number one, this time with Imagine. A 10-song, 34-minute set of previously unreleased live and studio recordings, Imagine sold more than 57,500 copies last week to debut at number one. Songbird, which has sold more than 1,074,000 copies since its 1998 release, also had a good week and rebounds 67-30 to gain its highest chart position since last October. Both albums are licensed by Californian indie label Blix Street to UK/Australian indie Hot, which operates out of Sussex and distributed both albums itself. As well as the John Lennon-penned title track, Imagine includes Cassidy's take on Buddy Holly's Doesn't Matter Any More, Peggy Lee's Fever and Gordon Lightfoot's Early Morning Rain.

songs Moyet wrote with veteran producer Pete Glenister, it represents the 41-year-old's first album for Sanctuary's Castle Music label. It is Sanctuary's second Top 20 album of the year – following Petula Clark's The Ultimate Collection, which also reached number 18 in April – but the first of new, original material in the history of the company, which began life in 1983 as Castle Communications.

A selection of jazzy songs rendered in both Portuguese and English, Bebel Gilberto's Tempo manages a number 54 debut without the benefit of a hit single, although her recording of So Nice (Summer Samba) is receiving airplay. The success of Gilberto's album is no great surprise, since it has sold upwards of 12,000 copies on import from the US since it was released there in 2000. Gilberto is the daughter of Brazilian music legend Joao Gilberto and her mother is another famous Brazilian singer, Miucha. Bebel was born in New York and Tanto Tempo is her first full-length album.

COMPILATIONS

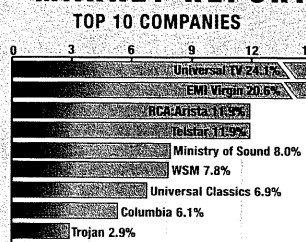

After the unusually short two-week reign of Now That's What I Call Music! 51 in the spring, Now! 52 returns the series to something like normal and is number one for the fifth straight week, with sales last week of more than 33,000 keeping it a healthy distance ahead of Kiss Hitlist Summer 2002 which is both its nearest challenger and the week's highest new entry, debuting at number two with sales of more than 27,500.

Now 52's sales after 34 days in the shop are 491,000. That is down on its 2001 equivalent, Now! 49, which at the same stage of its life had sold 654,000, or its 2000 equivalent Now! 46, which had sold 566,000 at this point. Now! 52 is, however, outperforming all other summer releases, bar these two.

Ministry Of Sound has issued 10

compilations under its "The Annual" banner in less than six years. Basic maths, therefore, suggest that annuals are actually more frequent than once a year – and this is explained by the fact that the enormous success of the original series, conceived as mix albums for the Christmas market, has prompted MoS to introduce interim editions. The latest of these, The Annual: Ibiza 2002, debuts at number four this week with sales of more than 23,000. While that may sound good, it should be noted that, unless it climbs, the album will be the first in the series to fall short of the top three since the very first, which had to settle for a number 13 peak back in 1995. The Annual: Ibiza 2002 features 40 tracks including recent hits from Snap Vs Plaything and Missy Elliott, as well as upcoming hits from Scooter and Mint Royale.
