SINGLES COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Apparently set to become the first British male solo artist to date to register four number one singles in a calendar year, Will Young surprisingly fails so to do. After leading the chart all week with an advantage of 4,498 (17.8%) in Friday's sales flashes, Young's Don't Let Me Down/You And I ended up with sales of just 45,008, allowing fellow BMG star Christina Aguilera's Dirty to retain pole position with sales of 46,922. Young's debut solo single Anything Is Possible/Evergreen sold 1,108,269 copies on its first week in the shop, including 403,027 on the day of its release. Indeed, it sold more copies in its first hour in the shops than his latest single sold last week. Young's disappointing sales tally is all the more remarkable as the record is a charity single for Children In Need. Last year's CIN single, Have You Ever by S Club 7, sold 143,000 on its first week.

Despite suffering a week-on-week decline of 36%, Christina Aguilera's Dirty unexpectedly retains pole position on the singles chart. It sold nearly 47,000 copies – the lowest tally for a number one since Atomic Kitten's The Tide Is High sold slightly fewer on its third and final week at number one 10 weeks ago – but was able to continue as the singles market has quietened down. While album sales have surged ahead with gains of 16% and 27% in the last two weeks, the singles market has dipped 12%, then 8%.

A bad week for 19 Management, with the disappointing display of Will Young's new single (see above) and a below-par performance from S Club's Alive. S Club's previous nine singles all reached the Top Three but their latest, Alive, has to settle for a number five debut with sales of 26,500. It is the introductory single from the group's new album, Seeing Double, which is out today (November 25). Their previous hits were as S Club 7. Their new name reflects the fact that

Meanwhile, Jennifer Lopez registers her seventh straight top five hit (and ninth from 10 singles) with Jenny From The Block, which debuts at number three. It is also the first single from a new album which is out this week – namely This Is Me...Then.

Welcome back to Mariah Carey, who confounds her critics by registering her first 10 solo hit for four years, debuting at number eight with Through The Rain. It is Carey's 28th hit in all and her 18th Top 10 single. And, like the S Club and Lopez singles, it is the first single from a new album – in Carey's case Charm Bracelet, which is out next month.

Belgian dance act Lasgo have had three hits this year, but as the titles (all one word) get smaller so do the hits. They started off with Something, which reached number four, then got to number seven with Alone. This week they debut at number 17 with Pray.

Kelly Llorenna enjoys her fourth Top 20 hit of the year, debuting at number 19 with Heart Of Gold. Kelly previously fronted Flip & Fill's hit True Love Never Dies (seven in February), reached nine with her debut solo single Tell It To My Heart in July and teamed up with N-Trance for Forever to reach six in September.

ALBUMS COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Although it has yet to spawn any singles, Robbie Williams' Escapology arrived with quite a bang last week, selling upwards of 264,000 copies to command an 8.2% slice of the artist albums market. Although its opening week was smaller than Williams' last two albums, Escapology was in line with EMI expectations, and represents the second highest weekly sale registered by any album this year, falling 10,000 short of the 274,000 opening staged by Coldplay's second album A Rush Of Blood To The Head at the end of August.

Williams had the second biggest-selling album of both 2000 (with Sing When You're Winning) and 2001 (Swing When You're Winning) but Escapology (number 44 for the year after six days) stands a better chance of getting the title in 2002, as the target is not so high. In 2000, The Beatles' 1 was top with 1.85m sales, 250,000 more than Sing. Last year, Dido's No Angel took the prize with 1.92m, while Swing sold 1.49m.

Thus far in 2002, no album has sold 1m copies, although the record which has lead the race for much of the year and is still number one – Enrique Iglesias' Escape – gets a new lease of life this week, soaring 53-16 after being repackaged with a trio of bonus cuts, second album I've Been Expecting You, and comes in 250,000 sales ahead of the introductory tally of his debut, Life Thru A Lens, which opened in 11th position with 14,500 sales in October 1997 (reaching number one after a 28-week gestation. It spent two weeks at number one, while Life Thru A Lens and Sing When You're Winning both reigned for three weeks and Swing... was number one for seven weeks.

namely extra mixes of the singles Here and Maybe plus the new track To Love A Woman, a duet with Lionel Richie. Escape sold nearly 33,000 copies last week to take its overall 2002 tally to 903,000.

Meanwhile, Shania Twain's daunting task of following up her multi-platinum 1997 releases Come On Over is off to a brisk start. Twain's new album, Up!, sold nearly 73,000 copies last week and debuts at number four. Come On Over sold a meagre 122 copies on its first week, but went on to become one of the 10 biggest sellers of all-time in the UK, and the biggest by a female solo artist to date, with sales of more than 3.24m. Up! is an odd album in many ways: it is a double-disc set even though it is not indicated as such on the packaging. The first CD comprises pop versions of the album's 19 songs, and the second has them in world mixes – except in America where the world mixes are replaced by country mixes. As for the titles, no fewer than nine of them end with exclamation marks.

COMPILATIONS

Four weeks ago fewer than 500,000 compilations were sold, but last week the figure topped the million mark for the first time in 2002, all of which suggests two things – Christmas is coming and a new Now! album has arrived.

Now That's What I Call Music! 53 was released last Monday and sold almost 190,000 copies in the week. That is a 19% share of the market and more than its six nearest rivals' share added together. Impressive as that may sound, it is nevertheless way down on the first-week tallies of the equivalent Now! releases in recent years. Now! 50 opened a year ago with 267,000 sales, while Now! 47 sold 245,000 on its 2000 debut and Now! 44 made the all-time best Now! opening in 1999 with 278,000 sales. The last time the pre-Christmas Now! release started with a smaller tally was in 1997 when Now! 38 started out with 152,000 sales on its way to a 1.1m sale.

Throughout its 19-year history, the biggest selling of the three annual Now! releases is the one that coincides with the Christmas market – but Now! 53 has, surprisingly, the lowest first-week sale of this year's trio. Now! 51 started with 224,500 sales in March and Now! 52 sold 227,500 the week it was released in July.

Now! 53's problems may simply be a reflection of the overall singles market malaise – or it may be that it contains fewer major hits than is customary. Among its 43 tracks are minor successes like Imagine by Eva Cassidy (a number 118 chart single) and a number of records which peaked in the teens.
