SINGLES COMMENTARY

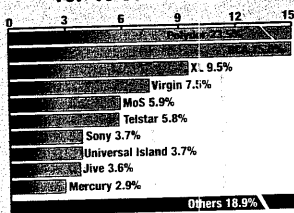

by ALAN JONES

Registering just 33,500 sales – the lowest tally for a number one since Aaliyah's More Than A Woman took the title with 32,000 sales a year ago this week – Girls Aloud's Sound Of The Underground nevertheless retained its title more easily than midweek sales flashes suggested it might. Midweek, Detroit newcomers Electric Six were just a couple of thousand sales behind with their debut single Danger! High Voltage. In the end, however, they were more than 7,000 sales short of pole position, leaving Girls Aloud to reflect that in topping the chart for four weeks, Sound Of The Underground has done as well as any single in the 21st century. Whole Again by Atomic Kitten, Can't Get You Out Of My Head by Kylie Minogue, Hero by Enrique Iglesias, Unchained Melody by Gareth Gates and A Little Less Conversation by Elvis Vs JXL all survived for four weeks; the last number one to endure longer was It's Like That by Run-DMC Vs Jason Nevins, which spent six weeks at the top in 1998.

SALES UPDATE

A fortnight ago, Blackburn-based indie All Around The World's run of nine straight Top 20 hits came to an end when Pascal's cover of

SINGLES FACTFILE

A week after Peter Gabriel's latest single, More Than This, failed to register in the Top 40, the former Genesis star's 1977 debut solo hit, Solsbury Hill, revives the chart career of Erasure. Britain's second most successful duo – their tally of hits is inferior only to the Pet Shop Boys – Erasure improve on Gabriel's peak by debuting at number 10, giving them their 16th Top 10 hit and their 28th chart entry in all. It's the first single from Vince

Clarke and Andy Bell's upcoming covers album Other People's Songs, and proves quite a tonic to their flagging chart career – their last single Freedom peaked at number 27 in 2000, becoming their lowest-charting single since their 1985 debut Who Needs Love Like That. Solsbury Hill, by contrast, provides them with their first Top 10 hit since 1994's Run To The Sun. Other People's Songs is due to be released in a fortnight.

TOP CORPORATE GROUPS

cover of another number one, Whitney Houston's I Wanna Dance With Somebody, debuting at number 13. Flip & Fill are perhaps the most successful remixers of the moment, and they have now also chalked up a hat-trick of Top 20 hits as a recording act in their own right, having also reached number seven with True Love Never Dies and number three with Shooting Star.

Singles sales were down 9% last week to 441,000 – their lowest level for 53 weeks. They started the year in promising style, 10.3% above the first week of 2002. But with no real smashes released last week sales were more than 18% behind the equivalent week in 2002. One of the consequences of last week's slump – which must also be at least partly due to very severe weather – is that Eminem's Lose Yourself holds at number three even as its sales fall by 18% to less than 19,500 – the lowest sales for a number three record thus far in the 21st century. Year-to-date, 2003 sales now trail 2002 by more than 5%.

ALBUMS COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

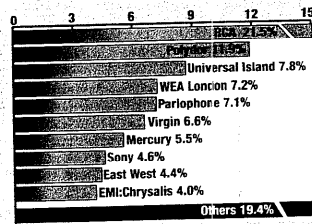

For the first time in its 29-year history, Arista holds the top two places in the albums chart. The BMG imprint, founded by Clive Davis in 1975, is number one thanks to Canadian Avril Lavigne, whose debut set Let Go retains the pole position it won for the first time last week, while Pink's second album Missundaztood moves into runners-up position. The Pink album debuted at number four 50 weeks ago and has since spent three weeks at number three, but reaches a new high this week, while extending its current run in the Top 10 to 22 weeks. Despite its advance, Missundaztood loses ground on Let Go, with sales down 38% compared to its rival's 25% decline in a market down 31% overall.

With new single Cry Me A River rapidly increasing its radio and TV exposure, and previous single Like I Love You exploding in the clubs, 'N Sync star Justin Timberlake's debut solo album Justified is hot again. The album, which has moved 6-22-39-52-59-60-56-53-26-8 since its release last November, sold its album act. His debut LP, also called Gotta Get Thru This, would have been a disappointment, with sales of 33,000, but If You're Not The One has revived it, with sales now of more than 312,000. The album equalled its highest chart position to date last week and improves on that dramatically this week, leaping 13-4. And, in a market which is off 31% week-on-week, it even manages a 9% increase in sales.

Royksopp's 2001 debut album Melody AM topped the 200,000 sales mark last week and advances 58-31 on the chart to achieve its highest placing for three months. It does so despite the fact that it sold 15 fewer copies last week than the week before.

The sad news that Bee Gee Maurice Gibb had died of a heart attack at the age of 53 came too late to have any impact on this week's chart, but it is clearly going to affect next week's listings. After underperforming the market all week and dipping out of the Top 200 on midweek sales flashes, the latest Bee Gees retrospective, Their Greatest Hits - The Record, outperformed the market by 22% on Saturday, following news that Gibb was in intensive care to finish the week climbing 174-151. The news of Maurice's demise comes as twin Robin was embarking on a publicity tour of the UK to promote his upcoming single Please, which gets off to a promising start on the airplay chart this week, debuting at number 105.

COMPILATIONS

Two years to the week after Now That's What I Call Music! 47's seven-week reign at the top of the compilation chart was ended by Clubbers Guide To 2001, and one year to the week after Now That's What I Call Music! 50's identical 49-day supremacy was overturned by Clubbers Guide To 2002. Now! 53 is despatched from the chart summit - after seven weeks - by Clubbers Guide 2003.

But behind the bare facts lies a more disturbing trend for the Clubbers Guide series. Clubbers Guide 2003 sold only 22,000 copies last week, while Clubbers Guide To 2002 opened with nearly 37,000 sales, and Clubbers Guide To 2001 exploded with a first-week tally of 47,000. Even compared to Clubbers Guide To 2000, which opened its account with 26,000 sales four years ago, the opening score of Clubbers Guide To 2003 is below par.

It is certainly disappointing when one considers the track selection. It contains recent monster hits like Heaven by DJ Sammy and You're A Superstar by Love Inc., high new singles chart entries this week by Flip & Fill (I Wanna Dance With Somebody) and Divine Inspiration (The Way - Put Your Hand In My Hand) plus upcoming hits Hard To Say I'm Sorry by Aquagen and Turn Around 2003 by Phats & Small.

In its defence, Clubbers Guide 2003 is the only new compilation to even dent the Top 50 this week and, had it not been released, sales in the sector, which are off by 33% week-on-week, would have slipped even further. And it did make number one comfortably, with the new number two, All Time Classic Tearjerkers, selling fewer than 16,000 copies even as it jumped 5-2.
