SINGLES COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Although colleague Kelly Rowland is doing even better, Beyoncé Knowles' activities outside of Destiny's Child are proving highly successful. Knowles' debut solo single Work It Out – a retro groove recorded for her theatrical debut in the Austin Powers spoof Goldmember – reached number seven last July and this week her '03 Bonnie & Clyde collaboration with Jay-Z debuts at number two. Including the last eight Destiny's Child hits, it brings

SINGLES FACTFILE

Knowles' run of consecutive Top 10 hits to 10. The record also brings Jay-Z back to the chart runners-up spot he first and last occupied when Hard Knock Life proved unable to dethrone Cher's Believe in 1998. It is less than six years since Jay-Z commenced his chart career, yet '03 Bonnie & Clyde is already his 21st hit. It is the first single from his current album The Blueprint 2 – The Gift And The Curse, which responds by leaping 77-46.

David Sneddon's Living The Lie manages a comfortable second week at number one, despite suffering a savage 58% slide in sales week-on-week. The Fame Academy winner's single sold 45,500 copies last week, more than enough to see off the challenge of Jay-Z feat. Beyoncé Knowles' '03 Bonnie & Clyde, which sold little more than 36,000 copies, but disappointing compared to Living The Lie's sales of more than 108,000 the week before. Sneddon's single continues to do particularly well in his Scottish homeland, where it sold more than 8,700 copies last week – 33.6% of total singles sales north of the border. In the rest of the UK, Living The Lie united for 7.1% of singles sales.

Darren Tate is one of the chart's more regular visitors and he has appeared under a variety of guises. He has been part of Angelic, Citizen Caned and Orion and has more recently reinvented himself as Jurgen Vries. Under the latter name he had a number 13 hit with The Theme last September and now he has joined up with another pseudonymous star for The Opera Song (Brave New World), which debuts this week. The label credits his co-star as

CMC, but that is just short for Charlotte Marie Church – aka Welsh teen opera sensation Charlotte Church. Surprisingly, it is Church's first appearance in the chart since her debut hit Just Wave Hello peaked at number 34 three years ago. The Opera Song got off to a flying start to the week, holding second place in the first sales flashes but faded a little, eventually selling nearly 29,000 copies for a number three debut.

Solo and with Artful Dodger, Craig David has had eight Top 10 hits from as many releases. But he only just retains that 100% record this week, with Hidden Agenda, his latest single, debuting at number 10. Though destined to be his smallest hit to date, it does, however, provide renewed impetus for his album Slicker Than Your Average, which jumps 24-15 on a 34% increase in sales.

Former Savage Garden star Darren Hayes' debut solo album Spin surrenders its fourth hit this week. The album was already home to the number two single Insatiable, the number 15 hit Strange Relationship and the number 20 single I Miss You. Now Crush completes the quartet, debuting at number 19.

ALBUMS COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

While their import single All The Things She Said jumps 57-44, Russian duo T.A.T.U.'s debut album 200 Km/h In The Wrong Lane is the fastest mover on the album chart, where it explodes 70-34 with sales up 68% week-on-week. The album – partly written and produced by the UK's Trevor Horn – includes the original Russian-language version of All The Things She Said and a cover of the Smiths' hit How Soon Is Now. T.A.T.U. are neither the first Russian act to have a hit single or album in the UK – but they are the first to have both. Going before them with hit singles are PPK and Alsou, while the only Russian representative on the albums chart hitherto was tenor Ivan Rebroff, who has released more than 100 albums but had success here only with The Very Best Of Ivan Rebroff, which reached number 57 in 1990, after he had a show on the BBC.

After more than 21 years as an independent record label, Jive was officially integrated into BMG last week, and instantly gifts its new owners with a number one album, as 'N Sync star Justin Timberlake's Justified climbs 2-1, besting by the small matter of 172 sales those of Canadian newcomer and fellow BMG charge Avril Lavigne's Let Go, which was number one for the past two weeks.

Timberlake's success comes as the star is in the midst of a UK media blitz ahead of the release of his second solo single Cry Me A River. His debut solo single Like I Love You was a number two hit in November but initially looked very shaky indeed and rapidly slipped from its number two debut to a low of number 60 before turning round once airplay for Cry Me A River started to lift it. The album's full rollercoaster route to number one: 6-22-39-52-59-60-56-53-26-8-2-1. For all their success, it should be noted that 'N Sync have never even had a Top 10 album in the UK.

Two other albums which had slow starts and are now blossoming in similar style to Justified are Busted's self-titled debut and Christina Aguilera's Stripped. Busted's album moves

5-3 with a further 27% increase in sales week-on-week, while Aguilera is in the Top 10 for the first time in her album chart career, with

Stripped surging 13-6 with a 54% hike in sales. Busted's album has improved its position nine weeks in a row, while Aguilera's disc has ventured higher six times in a row. Stripped should top the 200,000 sales mark next week, and Busted will move past 150,000.

Since Maurice Gibb's unexpected death, Their Greatest Hits – The Record by the Bee Gees has surged 151-30-9. Its latest jump, fuelled by an increase in sales of 123% week-on-week, brings the album back into the Top 10 for the first time since the last week of 2001, when the album enjoyed its sixth and last week in the top tier. We should also acknowledge the fact that Maurice Gibb's surviving twin and fellow Bee Gees legend Robin secures a number 23 debut on the singles chart this week with Please. It is his first solo appearance in the Top 40 since his debut solo single Saved By The Bell – issued after a spat with Maurice and older brother Barry resulted in Robin temporarily leaving the group – reached number two in 1969.

COMPILATIONS

Last week saw 8 Mile become the first soundtrack album to top the compilation chart since Brigitte Jones's Diary in May 2001. This week, it consolidates its lead, increasing sales by 46% to establish a 50% lead over its new runner-up, All Time Classic Tearjerkers. A second volume of hip-hop tunes assembled for the film, More Music From 8 Mile, also enjoys a good week, with sales up 44%, moving the disc 35-24 on the album chart. 8 Mile sold more than 30,000 copies last week, a total beaten by only two artist albums, namely Justin Timberlake's Justified and Avril Lavigne's Let Go.

8 Mile is not the only soundtrack doing good business at present – the somewhat different Chicago soundtrack scuttles from its debut position on 16 to number four. It sold nearly 14,000 copies last week, an impressive 141% expansion week-on-week.

With 8 Mile and Chicago both so highly placed, this is the first time in the 21st century that two soundtrack albums have simultaneously occupied Top Five berths.

With these albums performing well, and Top 10 debuts for Urban Explosion and Deeper Shades Of Euphoria, compilation sales are off only 2% this week, their smallest slip since Christmas. Urban Explosion (number five) mixes reggae, rap, R&B and garage with artists such as Elephant Man, Shy FX, Tweet and Benzino, while Deeper Shades Of Euphoria is the 13th album in the popular (primarily trance) Telstar/BMG series to be released since 1999 and the 12th to reach the Top 20, with only Old Skool Euphoria (number 23 in 2001) missing out. Among those featured on the album are Agnelli & Nelson, Paul Oakenfold, Digital Blonde and DB Boulevard.
