SINGLES COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Universal registers its third straight number one, with Interscope's Russian duo tATu exploding 177-1 with their debut single All The Things She Said. tATu is the first female duo to have a number one since former Melanie C and Lisa "Left Eye" Lopes' one-off pairing Never Be The Same Again topped the chart in April 2000 – and tATu is the first regular female duo to have a number one since sisters Mel & Kim topped with Respectable in March 1987.

Unable to match tATu's explosive start, Kelly Rowland nevertheless sold enough copies of her debut solo single Stole to take second place, just a week after her sister's Child bandmate Beyonce Knowles debuted at number two in with '03 Bonnie & Clyde in partnership with Jay-Z. Rowland has already topped the chart in every previous year of the 21st century, reaching the summit with Destiny's Child in both 2000 and 2001, and joining Nelly for the 2002 chart-topper Dilemma.

SINGLES FACTFILE

Weathering a tabloid-fuelled storm about their sexuality and the way it is used in the video for All The Things She Said, Russian teen duo tATu romp to an easy victory atop the singles chart. Attempts to derail the single on Friday by the likes of Richard & Judy ("don't buy this record") came to nothing, and All The Things She Said secured 29.7% of its week's sales on Saturday, exactly in line with the rest of the market. In the week as a whole it sold almost 90,000 copies and earned 17-year-old Julia Volkova and 18-year-old pal Lena Katina the honour of becoming the first Russian act ever to have a number one. Hitherto, the only Russians to have hits were trance act PPK (number three with ResuRection in 2001, and number 39 with Reload in 2002) and Alsou, 17-years-old when her debut single Before You Love Me reached number 27 in 2001.

MARKET REPORT

TOP 10 COMPANIES

Figures show top 10 companies by % of total sales of the Top 75; and corporate group shares by % of total sales of the Top 75

TOP CORPORATE GROUPS

SALES UPDATE

VERSUS LAST WEEK: +18.2%

YEAR TO DATE VERSUS LAST YEAR: -14.6%

PERCENTAGE OF UK ACTS IN THE CHART

UK: 66.7% US: 26.7% Other: 6.6%

In a particularly well spaced top three, the 1-2-3 placings were in almost inverse 3-2-1 sales ratios, with tATu selling 90,000, Kelly

Rowland selling 63,000 and David Sneddon – who slips 1-3 after a fortnight at the top – selling little more than 26,000 copies of

Stop Living The Lie. Sneddon's single has sold more than 180,000 copies in its first 20 days in the shops, and is the biggest selling single of the year to date.

On its eighth week in the chart, Blue and Elton John's Sorry Seems To Be The Hardest Word collaboration continues its slow fade, falling 21-24. It is now the biggest seller of Blue's seven singles releases, topping the 250,000 sales mark to beat their previous best tally of 245,000 set by their debut hit, 2001's All Rise.

Veteran electro duo Soft Cell – Marc Almond and David Ball – had the last of their nine Top 40 hits way back in 1984. Remixes of Tainted Love and Say Hello, Wave Goodbye have brought them chart success since but debuting at number 39 is their first new Top 40 hit in 19 years, a remake of The Night (originally by Frankie Valli). Its the second single by Soft Cell since they reformed – Monoculture fell short of the Top 40 last September, peaking at number 52.

ALBUMS COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Sales of artist albums slipped for the sixth straight week last week but the overall decline of just 1% was perfectly acceptable given the appalling weather and the fact that no new album was sufficiently anticipated to register in the Top 10. As has become customary in the post-Christmas lull, many albums which failed to ignite fully last year have taken full advantage of the absence of hot releases to raise their own profiles – none more than Justin Timberlake's Justified.

Timberlake turned 22 last Friday (31st January) and his debut solo album Justified retains the number one position it first gained a week ago with a 51% surge in sales to more than 151,000. Meanwhile, Busted's self-titled debut album enjoys a 36% hike to more than 36,000 sales and climbs 3-2 as a result. Christina Aguilera's Stripped adds 48% week-on-week and rises 6-4, while Jay-Z's The Black Album 2 also takes off, moving 46-23 with a 77% increase.

Other albums making good progress context, first week sales of more than 11,300 for Other People's Songs are highly satisfactory. The album – as its title suggests – consists entirely of covers. The introductory single, a remake of Peter Gabriel's Solsbury Hill, reached number 10 last month, providing Erasure with its biggest chart single in nine years. Other People's Songs also includes versions of the Righteous Brothers' hits Ebb Tide and You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling.

ALBUMS FACTFILE

into the Top 10 for the first time since last August, with its best ever weekly sale of more than 16,500. And Alicia Keys – who celebrated her 22nd birthday six days before Justin Timberlake – gets a belated present with Songs In A Minor jumping 75-55 to secure its highest placing for three months.

Among new releases, the star performer is Essex group InMe's Overgrown Eden. The much-vaunted youngsters' first album, Overgrown Eden sold more than 12,000 copies last week to earn a number 15 debut. The trio – comprising two 20-year-olds and one 19-year-old – have enjoyed growing success as a singles act, following their number 66 debut single UnderDose with the number 43 hit Firefly and, most recently, Crushed Like Fruit, which reached number 25 three weeks ago. All three InMe singles are on Overgrown Eden, released by Music For Nations. It secures the label's highest ever first week sale while providing only its third Top 20 album in the last decade.

COMPILATIONS

Of growing importance to the record industry in recent times, Valentine's Day generally provides the first trigger to increased sales of the year – and so it proves again this year. Although Valentine's Day doesn't fall until a week on Friday, marketing of love songs compilations has begun already, and helps the compilation sector to register a 7% increase in sales week-on-week, with pertinent debuts at number two for Sanctuary's Reggae Love Songs: 50 Jamaican Lovers Classics and number three for EMI/Virgin's I Love U. The Sanctuary set draws heavily on its own Trojan catalogue, including hits such as Help Me Make It Through The Night by John Holt. The EMI/Virgin set is much more eclectic, covering MOR, pop, R&B and country, as well as reggae. Boris Gardiner's 1986 chart-topper is on both sets, while Roberta Flack's signature song First Time Ever I Saw Your Face appears on both albums in other versions, with Marcia Griffiths performing it on Reggae Love Songs and former Eternal star Easter Bennett giving her rendition on I Love U. For two Valentine's Day compilations to be so highly placed this early is unique – last year, for example, the two big contenders at this stage were WSM's Love So Strong and UMTV's Love, which debuted at four and 10 respectively. A third love songs compilation, Sony/WSM's The Power Of Love, is also in the Top 10 this week, debuting at number seven.

The 8 Mile soundtrack achieves a third straight week at the top. Its sales are up again, by a further 3%, to a new peak of more than 31,000, though More Music From 8 Mile suffers its first setback, slipping 24-29 on an 11% decline in sales.
