MUSIC WEEK 15 FEBRUARY 2003

SINGLES COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Oasis register their 19th consecutive Top 40 hit, their 17th consecutive Top 10 hit, their 15th consecutive Top Five hit and their second number three hit with Songbird. It is the fourth single from their current album Heathen Chemistry, following The Hindu Times (number one last April), Stop Crying Your Heart Out (number two in June) and Little By Little (number two in October). One difference is that the first 18 Oasis hits were written by Noel Gallagher, while Songbird is the first Oasis single penned by Liam Gallagher. Songbird sold nearly 48,000 copies last week. Other Heathen Chemistry singles opened thus: Hindu Times – 116,000, Stop Crying Your Heart Out – 85,500, Little By Little/She Is Love – 60,500, Songbird's success seems to have had little effect on Heathen Chemistry, however. The album climbs only 69-63 this week.

SINGLES FACTFILE

Up against tough competition from Justin Timberlake's Cry Me A River and Oasis' Songbird, which held the lead mid-week, Russian teen duo T.A.T.U.'s All The Things She Said manages to register a second week at number one. Its sales declined 36% week-on-week to 57,000, a total which turned out to be too much of a challenge for Timberlake – who thus posts his second number two hit from as many releases in his solo career – and Oasis, who settle for third place. Timberlake's single sold just under 50,500, a considerable decline on the opening week; tally of 87,000 which earned his introductory solo single Like I Love runners-up position three months ago.

s, meanwhile, open with sales of just under 48,000, their slowest start since their fourth hit, Cigarettes And Alcohol opened with sales of 20,000 to debut at number seven in October 1994.

Jamaican dancehall star Sean Paul is one of reggae's hottest new talents. His debut hit Gimme The Light reached number 32 here last September on the VP label, despite getting little exposure. This time, with marketing and distribution handled by Warner Music, and massive support from Radio One, where it was aired 27 times last week, it fares much better, debuting at number five.

ALBUMS

by ALAN JONES

Female solo stars make their best showing to date on the album's chart, occupying five of the top six places. Were it not for the presence of Justin Timberlake's Justified album at number two, they would occupy all of the top five places in the chart for the first time. Debuts from Kelly Rowland at number one, Lisa Stansfield at number three and Aaliyah at number four join existing chart albums from Avril Lavigne and Christina Aguilera in the top six to make this an historic week for female chart talent. Ironically, Pink – who has sold more albums in the last year than any other woman – misses out on being part of the ea, with her latest album Missundaztood coming 7-13, bringing to an end a run of 25 consecutive appearances in the Top 10. With Pink out of the picture, the Top 10's longest running hit is now Avril Lavigne's Let Go, which has been in the top tier for the past 11 weeks.

With 18 hit singles under her belt stretching back to 1989, it is surprising that there has never been a Lisa Stansfield hits album. That

ALBUMS FACTFILE

While acknowledging the accomplishments of Alison Moyet and Annie Lennox – who both topped the chart solo and in duos – and Gloria Estefan, who was credited alone and with the Miami Sound Machine for different number ones although the lineup of her band remained the same throughout, we salute Kelly Rowland who this week becomes the first female recording artist to date to have number one albums both as part of a group and solo. Rowland, of course, is a member of Destiny's Child, whose 2001 album Survivor topped the chart for four weeks in all. Rowland's solo debut Simply Deep dethroned Justin Timberlake's Justified. The album – home to her number one Nelly duet Dilemma and the number two hit Stole – sold nearly 63,000 copies to take pole position with ease.

situation has been remedied with the release of Biography – The Greatest Hits, which debuts this week at number three. Its first-week sales of nearly 35,000 exceed the combined career sales of her last two albums – the 1999 soundtrack Swing, which sold 12,000 copies

COMPILATIONS

Valentine's Day has delivered a short-lived but welcome surge in sales for several years with the effect, particularly on the compilations market, becoming more pronounced each and every year. It is no surprise, therefore, to find there are more contenders than ever competing for attention this year. Lovers were out in force last week purchasing poignant and pertinent compilations. So much so that, for the first time in compilation chart history, six of the Top 10 albums this week are love-themed collections. That's twice as many as this week last year, and three times as many as in the corresponding week in 2001.

The love squad comprises The Classical Album (number 10), All Time Classic Arjerkers (number seven), The Power Of Love (number six), Reggae Love Songs

(number four), I Love U (number three) and Love – Eternal Lovesongs, a new Universal Music compilation which debuts at number one with first-week sales of nearly 31,000 copies. Seizing the top spot from the 8 Mile soundtrack, which was number one for the past three weeks, Love – Eternal Lovesongs is a 38-song double-disc set with contemporary hits like If You're Not The One by Daniel Bedingfield and Sorry Seems To Be The Hardest Word by Blue and Elton John and vintage classics like You're The First, The Last, My Everything by Barry White and Marvin Gaye's Let's Get It On.

Meanwhile, pursuing an entirely different brief, the latest in EMI/Virgin's highly successful Best...Ever series is The Best One Hit Wonders In The World...Ever!, which debuts at number 11 with sales of 8,500.
