SINGLES COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

With six new entries to the Top 10, including Gareth Gates' Comic Relief single Spirit In The Sky, last week was by far the best for singles sales this year. All told, some 820,000 singles were sold, 180,000 more than in any other week in 2003 and the best tally since 854,000 singles were sold in the final week of 2002.

Spirit In The Sky sold 273,500 copies last week, less than the 292,000 first-week sale of the last Comic Relief single - Westlife's Uptown Girl in 2001. Five other Comic Relief singles have reached number one: Cliff Richard & The Young Ones' Living Doll (1986), The Stink by 'ale & Pace (1991), Love Can Build A Bridge by ner, Chrissie Hynde, Neneh Cherry & Eric Clapton (1995), Mama/Who Do You Think You Are by the Spice Girls (1997) and When The Going Gets Tough by Boyzone (1999).

New entries fill the top four berths on the chart for the first time in nine months, with Gates debuting at number one, Jennifer Lopez at number two, Delta Goodrem at number three and 50 Cent at number four. Lopez's single All I Have is a distant second to Gates, with sales of 45,000, but extends her run of consecutive top five hits to an impressive seven.

Her Epic labelmate Delta Goodrem follows at number three with her debut hit Born To Try.

SINGLES FACTFILE

With sales of more than 273,500, Gareth Gates & The Kumars' Comic Relief single Spirit In The Sky debuts emphatically at number one. It accounted for a third of all singles sales last week and outsold the number two single by a margin of nearly six to one. The last single to sell more copies in a week was Gates' own debut single Unchained Melody, which was released a year ago tomorrow (March 18) and sold 850,000 copies on its first week in the shops. Spirit In The Sky is Gates' fourth number one and was previously a chart-topper for its writer Norman Greenbaum in 1970 and for Doctor And The Medics in 1986. It is the third song to top the chart in more than two versions, following You'll Never Walk Alone, which went to number one for three artists, and Unchained Melody, which has been number one for four acts, including Gates.

Goodrem plays Nina Tucker in the long-running Aussie soap Neighbours and is the eighth hitmaker to emerge from its ranks, following Kylie Minogue, Jason Donovan, Stefan Dennis, Gayle & Gillian, Craig McLachlan, Natalie Imbruglia and Holly Valance.

The last time the top four were all new entries was on June 22, 2002, when A Little Less Conversation by Elvis Vs JXL, Love At First Sight by Kylie Minogue, Get Over You by Sophie Ellis Bextor and Hero by Chad Kroeger made their debuts in positions one to four.

Despite dipping 55-60 on the airplay chart, Shania Twain registers her sixth straight Top 10 hit with Ka-Ching. Debuting at number eight, it is the second single from her current album Up!, following I'm Gonna Getcha Good, which reached number four last November. Up! peaked at number four last November and has perked up considerably in the past three weeks, moving 82-69-33-25. It has sold 440,000 copies including more than 8,000 last week.

ALBUMS COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

D eclining in line with the market by 11%, Norah Jones Come Away With Me album remains ahead at number one. It sold around 60,000 copies last week, 18,000 more than Coldplay's A Rush Of Blood To The Head, which improves 3-2. For Jones, it is week number three at number one, for Coldplay it is the highest position their album has held for 25 weeks.

The only artist to register a new entry to the albums chart for each of the last 16 years, Daniel O'Donnell makes his 2003 debut with Daniel In Blue Jeans, a compilation of previously released "rock'n'roll love songs", which debuts at six is week after selling nearly 31,000 copies. The recently-married Irish country star made his album chart debut in 1988 and has not missed a year since, accumulating a grand total of 20 chart albums.

Daniel In Blue Jeans is his second highest-charting album to date, trailing only 2000's number four album Faith & Inspiration.

Melanie C's second solo album Reason is this week's highest newcomer, debuting at number five with sales of nearly 31,000. That is impressive compared to her debut solo album Northern Star, which debuted at number 10 with fewer than 18,000 sales in 1999 and did not reach number five until its 25th week on the chart. It took a further 20 weeks to reach its peak position of number four, a position it reached a fortnight after its third and most successful single I Turn To You topped the singles chart. Thus far, the only single from Reason is Here It Comes Again, which reached number seven a fortnight ago. Melanie C is the second Spice Girl to have two top five albums – and her record is identical to Geri Halliwell, who reached four with her debut and five with the follow-up Scream If You Wanna Go Faster.

PERCENTAGE OF UK ACTS IN THE CHART

UK: 53.3% US: 41.3% Other: 5.4%

The chart continues to be distorted by the many and various sales bargains, of which the most obvious is Michael Jackson's Greatest Hits – HIStory Volume 1, which leaps 30-15 this week. Perhaps the most remarkable bargains to be found in the

COMPILATIONS

C oinciding with the broadcast of the final episode of Cold Feet – the popular comedy/drama which has been running for six years – The Very Best Of Cold Feet leaps 5-1 on the compilation chart this week, after enjoying a 71% expansion in sales week-on-week. The album – which features tracks such as I Heard It Through The Grapevine by Marvin Gaye, I Get The Sweetest Feeling by Jackie Wilson and the original Spirit In The Sky by Norman Greenbaum, as well as a video featuring series highlights – is the fourth Cold Feet album. It has sold 41,000 copies since its release a fortnight ago, bringing cumulative sales of Cold Feet related albums to 450,000 copies.

One of the most successful compilations last year was The Ultimate Chick Flick Soundtrack. The album, released last July, reached number four and sold 208,000 copies by year's end, making it 2002's 16th biggest-selling compilation. Chick Flicks – The Sequel emulates its predecessors debut/peak position this week, although its first-week sales of 16,000 are 1,000 fewer than the original. The highest-debating album of the week, it contains tracks such as From The Heart by Another Level and Someone Like You by Dina Carroll, on the premise that they were used in "female movies" Notting Hill and Bridget Jones's Diary respectively.

Its release cannily planned to coincide with St Patrick's Day, WSM's Irish-themed Shamrocks And Shenanigans sold more than 6,800 copies last week and debuts at number 10 on the compilations chart. Surprisingly, sales in Northern Ireland represent just 3% of its total and there were more than six sales in London for every one in Northern Ireland.
