SINGLES COMMENTARY

Atomic Kitten register their 10th straight Top 20 hit and the fourth top five single from their album Feels So Good, with Love Doesn't Have To Hurt, which debuts at number four this week. The highest new entry on a quiet week for singles, it falls slightly short of the previous Feels So Good singles, It's OK (number three, June 2002), The Tide Is High (Get The Feeling) (number one, September 2002) and Last Goodbye

(number two, December 2002). Penned by Bangles singer Susanna Hoffs, Tom Kelly and Liam Steinberg – who also collaborated on Eternal Flame, which topped the chart for both The Bangles and Atomic Kitten – it helps Feels So Good, which has sold 723,000 copies to date, to rebound 97-72 on the albums chart. The single is getting excellent radio support and climbs 21-13 on the airplay chart this week.

SALES UPDATE

VERSUS LAST YEAR:

TOP CORPORATE GROUPS

arrives at number seven. The 18-year-old Canadian previously reached number three with Complicated and number eight with Sk8er Boi, and all three of her hits are lifted from her million-selling debut album Let Go, which spent three weeks at number one at the start of the year and continues to sell impressively. It improves 10-8 this week, achieving a Top 10 placing for the 19th week in a row.

Another teenager – Mario – makes his maiden chart appearance this week. The R&B newcomer from Baltimore is another signing to Clive Davis' J Records imprint and debuts at number 18 with Just A Friend.

Aiming to become the first girl group from Scotland to become a major recording act, Lemonescent debuted at number 36 nationally and number five in Scotland last week with Help Me Mama, with nearly 90% of the disc's sales occurring north of the border. The record experiences an unusually sharp decline this week, however, plunging to 82 in Scotland and number 122 in the UK as a whole.

ALBUMS COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

They're brother and sister or husband and wife – nobody seems quite sure about the relationship between Jack and Meg White, but one thing we can be sure of is that their new album Elephant is a huge hit. Judged by Rolling Stone as "a glorious thing to hear", by the NME as "obliteratingly brilliant" and by Spin as "a remarkably good record" among a plethora of positive reviews, Elephant storms into the albums chart at number one this week. That's a remarkable result considering the White Stripes' only previous chart album, 2001's White Blood Cells, peaked at a lowly number 55, although it has still managed to sell more than 194,000 copies. Elephant is released on Beggars Banquet's XL Recordings imprint, for which it provides the first number one album since The Fat Of The Land by the Prodigy in July 1997.

With The White Stripes' latest album Elephant debuting at number one, American acts have held sway at the top of the chart for seven weeks and contributed the last four number ones, with The White Stripes being preceded at the top (in reverse chronological order) by Linkin Park, Norah Jones and Justin Timberlake. The last time four US acts in a row had number one albums was in 1994, when Luther Vandross, REM, Bon Jovi and Nirvana took turns to dominate.

Elephant's sales of more than 64,000 were 19,000 more than runner-up Norah Jones could manage with Come Away With Me, which climbs 2-2 despite a 46% dip in sales week-on-week as recent Brits and Grammy wins and the blip caused by Mother's Day all retreat into the distance. Come Away With Me may not be number one for the week, but by the time you read this it will be number one for the year. It topped 500,000 sales in 2003 (and 1.3m in total) on Saturday (5th April), getting to the half million mark for the year a couple of hours behind Justin Timberlake's Justified. But with Justified selling less than half as many copies last week, Come Away With Me has already closed that gap and is now opening up its own lead at the top of the 2003 sales pyramid. After the number two success of the introductory single Scandalous, Mis-Teeq's second album Eye Candy debuts at number six, with first-week sales of more than 33,500. The only surprise is that it did not do better – the group's debut album Lickin' On Both Sides arrived at number three with first-week sales of more than 49,000 in 2001 and has sold more than 450,000 copies so far.

The 30th anniversary relaunch of Pink Floyd's The Dark Side Of The Moon on a combined CD/SACD format disc generated sales of nearly 14,000 copies last week, enough for it to debut at number 17. It is Moon's first appearance in the Top 20 for 10 years – a digitally remastered upgrade of the album reached number four in March 1993.

We do not often mention the music video chart, but we should draw attention to The Beatles Anthology Boxed Set DVD which sold nearly 13,000 copies last week to debut at the top. The Anthology moved twice as many copies as The Robbie Williams Show, which debuts at number two.

COMPILATIONS

Fevered activity at the top of the compilations chart, with four new arrivals in the top five and steep declines for the albums they replace. Sales overall are down 20% – a fairly small dip for the first week after Mother's Day – although albums released specifically as gifts for Mother's Day experience much greater fall-off, with New Woman 2003 down 2-6 with a 72% loss and The Very Best Of All Woman 2003 tumbling 3-8 thanks to a 56% diminution in its sales appeal. The Very Best Of Cold Feet is the only album to hold onto a top five place, although it tumbles 1-3 to end a three-week residency at the top.

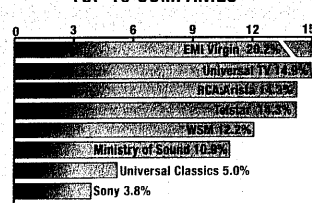

The new entries to the top five are a mixed bag, with dance albums (Now Dance 2003 and The Annual Spring 2003) debuting at five and four, the urban-themed Very Best Of Pure R&B Summer 2003 at number two and the pure pop of Hits 55 at number one.

Hits 55 is the sixth release in the BMG/Telstar/Sony/Warner Music series since it was revived in September 2003 with Hits 50 and the third to reach number one. Last year's equivalent album, Hits 52, arrived a fortnight earlier and peaked at number two after foolishly going head-to-head with its great rival Now That's What I Call Music!'s Now 51 release. Although Hits 55 has won pole position by avoiding Now! 54, which is out a week today (14 April), its first-week sales of 44,000 compares unfavourably with Hits 52's opening week tally of 55,500. It does, however, improve on the 41,000 opening of the last album in the series, Hits 54. Among the highlights on Hits 55 are the number one singles Beautiful by Christina Aguilera, Spirit In The Sky by Gareth Gates & the Kumars, and Heaven by DJ Sammy.
