THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS SINGLES

19 APRIL 2003

SINGLES COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Topping the chart for a third week in a row – the longest run by a dance act since Sonique's Feels So Good spent 21 days at the chart apex in 2000 – Room 5's Make Luv is the convincing champion of a quiet singles market. The release's sales dipped by 35% week-on-week to little more than 43,000 but it still scored a comprehensive victory over the new number two, Cry by former Hear'Say singer Kym Marsh which opened 26% lower at nearly 32,000. Marsh's hit is the seventh and biggest Top 40 entry entitled Cry, all of which have been different songs. Completing the top three is In Da Club by 50 Cent, which achieves the rare feat of reaching its highest position on its fifth week in the chart, and climbing for a third consecutive week. The record – currently in its seventh week at number one in America – has moved 4-9-8-5-3 in its UK chart career thus far but its sales have not followed its strange trajectory: starting with a first week sale of 36,000, its sales have fallen every week and it sold

Daniel Bedingfield plucks a fourth Top 10 single from his debut album Gotta Get Thru This this week, with I Can't Read You debuting at number six. Bedingfield topped the chart with his first and third singles (Gotta Get Thru This and If You're Not The One) and reached number four with James Dean, which was his second single. Although I Can't Read You sold fewer than 15,000 copies last week – far fewer than the first week sales of James Dean (35,000), If You're Not The One (74,500) and Gotta Get Thru This (109,000) – it has been getting a lot of airplay and has had a galvanising effect on his debut album, Gotta Get Thru This, which has improved 51-22-18 in the past fortnight and will sell its 500,000th copy later this week. The album has also sold 238,000 copies in America and is well past 1m sales globally for the 23-year-old.

four weeks at number one, and the number one record five years ago this very week, was Jason Nevins' remix of It's Like That by rap veterans Run-DMC which spent six weeks at the chart summit and sold a remarkable 1,120,000 copies. Their greatest hits album – delayed by the recent murder of Jam Master Jay – is out tomorrow and ahead of that another of their classics has been given the remix treatment. This time it is It's Tricky which has been danced-up, courtesy of Jackknife Lee. A number 16 hit in its original version in 1987, it comes close to matching that peak this week, debuting at number 20.

Some 28 years after providing the only number one hit in the career of Steve Harley & Cockney Rebel, Make Me Smile (Come Up And See Me) returns to the chart in a new version by Erasure. Debuting at number 14, it is the second single from the duo's covers album Other People's Songs. It is Erasure's 28th Top 40 hit – a total which puts them third in the all-time list of most successful chart duos, trailing only the Pet Shop Boys, who have 34 Top 40 hits, and the Everly Brothers who have 30.

THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS

ALBUMS

19 APRIL 2003

ALBUMS COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Fighting off a challenge from Parlophone acts Coldplay and Norah Jones, the White Stripes' Elephant charges to a second week atop the album chart after selling a further 40,000 copies. That is a comparatively modest decline of 37% on its first week tally of 64,000, especially as the overall artist album market contracted by 8% last week. A Rush Of Blood To The Head claims second place, for the third time in five weeks, after selling 37,000 copies, while Come Away With Me slips to third, with sales of nearly 35,000.

The latter album has sold 537,000 copies this year and moves back to the top of the year-to-date rankings, opening up a 9,000 margin over Justin Timberlake's Justified. Meanwhile, Avril Lavigne's Let Go, which climbs 8-4 this week after selling 29,000 copies, was third past the 500,000 sales mark for 2003, reaching the target just before close of business on Saturday.

David Gray's album A New Day At Midnight spawns its second hit single this week, as Be Mine debuts at number 23. The first was The

Other Side, which reached number 35 last December. Although neither single has reached the Top 20, the album is doing very well, with cumulative sales of 886,000 – and

Be Mine has been a major airplay hit (it moves 16-12 on the Music Control chart this week), contributing to a major resurgence in the album's fortunes. It has climbed 45-24-15 in

ALBUMS FACTFILE

Electric Soft Parade and the Doves in the past 12 months – Athlete sold 10,000 copies of Vehicles & Animals last week. They are the first successful rock band to emerge from Deptford in South London since Squeeze – and they are getting major support from record buyers in London. Most rock bands can underachieve in the capital but OCC data shows that Vehicles & Animals outperformed the market by 27% in London last week.

the past fortnight and has increased its sales by more than 40% in each of the past three weeks.

Originally peaking at number 23 last November with a different sleeve and title (Greatest Hits), the Lighthouse Family's The Very Best Of enjoys a second lease of life this week, returning to the chart at number nine. The original incarnation of the album sold 189,000, while The Very Best Of attracted nearly 20,000 new buyers last week. Although its content is identical to Greatest Hits, when the new CD is inserted in a computer an additional seven recordings may be accessed via the net. The extra tracks include versions of hits such as Lifted and Ocean Drive and previously unavailable recordings.

Aged 50, Lucinda Williams registers her highest charting album yet, debuting at number 48 with World Without Tears. Williams' music is of growing interest and her 1998 album Car Wheels On A Gravel Road has accumulated 43,000 sales even though it has never charted higher than number 144.

COMPILATIONS

Its sales down 9% week-on-week in line with the overall compilations market, BMG/Sony/Telstar/WSM's Hits 55 remains well ahead at the top of the album chart. The Very Best Of Pure R&B – Summer 2003 remains in second place, despite its seasonally premature title, which not only contradicts the number three album The Annual – Spring 2003 (released on exactly the same day) but also the weather, which saw many parts of the country with snow last week. Sales of The Very Best Of Pure R&B – Summer 2003 were off 12% at 30,000 last week, 10,000 sales behind Hits 55.

The highest new entry, at number seven, is another album which adds to the chronological confusion, The Ultimate Smoochy album. With a title like that, and a track-listing comprising songs including Have I Told You Lately That I Love You (Rod Stewart) and The Greatest Love Of All (George Benson) you could be forgiven for thinking we were in February and that it was a Valentine's Day release. Maybe the point it is trying to prove is that romance is a year-round thing, and now that all the Valentine's Day releases have faded it can have the field to itself – or maybe it missed its release date. Either way, it found more than 7,000 buyers last week.

Despite containing only two very minor hits, White Label Euphoria was a big success last year, climbing to number six in the chart and selling more than 50,000 copies. It is no surprise, therefore, to find White Label Euphoria – Level 2 making its chart debut this week. Mixed, like the first album, by John "OO" Fleming, it sold 6,600 copies last week and debuts at number 12, despite consisting of unproven tracks by the likes of Astrix & Domestic, Alien Project and Human Blue.
