SINGLES COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Widespread expectations that Madonna would register her 11th number one with American Life were confounded at the weekend when Room 5 refused to cede right of way to the Material Girl. Their Make Luv single sold a further 32,500 to register a fourth week at number one, leaving Madonna to settle for the ninth number two single of her career. Although it was released in two CD formats and its arrival coincided with school holidays and Easter – three reasons for it to prosper – American Life sold some 30,000 copies last week. That is a very modest total, compared not only with the 115,000 which her last number one – Music – sold when it debuted in pole position in September 2001 but also the 52,500 sales which earned her last single Die Another Day only a number three perch last November.

Denying Madonna the opportunity of raising her number one hit ratio to 20% – American Life would have been her 11th chart-topper from 55 singles – Make Luv by Room 5 featuring Oliver Cheatham unexpectedly extends its stay at number one to four weeks. Now the third biggest-selling single of the year, having topped the 250,000 sales mark on Saturday, Make Luv moves into a nine-way tie for most weeks at number one in the past four years. The last single to spend more than four weeks on top was Cher's Believe in 1998.

Former Blur guitarist Graham Coxon judged the band's new album Think Tank "underdeveloped and techy". Despite his reservations, Out Of Time – the first single from the album – debuts this week at number five, providing the group with their highest-charting single since Tender reached number two in 1999. Selling 21,000 copies last week, Out Of Time is Blur's 13th Top 10 hit, and their 24th hit in all. Think Tank is Blur's seventh album, and will be released on May 5. Meanwhile, Robbie Williams has to settle for a number four debut for his new single

Come Undone. It is the second single from Williams' latest album Escapology, following Feel, which reached number four last December. While only three of Williams' previous 17 singles since leaving Take That have charted lower, it should be noted that Escapology has sold more than 1.6m copies since its release 22 weeks ago, eating somewhat into the potential of Come Undone – and the album has rallied in the past couple of weeks, improving 42-35-24.

Ireland has generated two hugely popular boy bands – Boyzone, who registered 16 hits (all of the Top Five) between 1994 and 1999 starting with Love Me For A Reason; and Westlife, whose streak of Top Five hits has swollen to 14 since their 1999 debut Swear It Again. Bidding to join them as chart regulars are D-Side, whose introductory single is Speechless. The single reached number four in Ireland earlier this year, and now debuts here at number nine. The band has had comparatively little support from radio, but were clearly destined for stardom after winning the best tour act category at last year Smash Hits Pollwinners Party.

Change The World (Free2Air)
Release date 21 April 03

Cast your mind back and you may remember an era when Fatboy Slim was known by everyone as Norman and he played a real instrument in a rather prominent indie band called the Housemartins. Thanks to Canada's strict recycling policies, one of their many hits has been rejuvenated at the hands of kooky house producer Dino Lenny.

A penchant for swiping samples from 7" from the past, the likes of which everyone is guilty of buying at Woolies at some point. Lenny has managed to create a potential dance classic.

"Change The World" expertly snaps up a snippet from The Housemartins' "Flag Day" and pumps some contemporary life into the track with a new beat and some powerful piano riffs.

The single immediately won the blessing of Housemartins' front man Paul Heaton who offered to provide new lyrics. With approvals from UK's dance music elite (including a Buzz Chart record of holding the top spot for three weeks!) Dino Lenny is firmly placed on the music map for making some sweet house beats, as lush as his velour tracksuit.

ALBUMS COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

With radio support for his upcoming single Rock Your Body expanding rapidly and school holidays providing his core fanbase with ample opportunity to purchase, Justin Timberlake's debut solo album Justified prospered last week. Its sales shot-up week-on-week by 61% (compared with a market increase of little more than 16%) and it scuttles 7-3 as a result. Already number one on two separate occasions, it could be heading for the top for a third time – a scenario which seemed unlikely when it dipped from its debut position of six to number 60 within five weeks of release last autumn. But 'N Sync star Timberlake's subsequent success with First Like I Love You, then Cry Me A River and imminently Rock Your Body have helped it to turn Justified into a resounding success, with 739,000 sales thus far.

After eight weeks in US hands, thanks to number ones by Justin Timberlake, Norah Jones, Linkin Park and The White Stripes, the album chart is under home rule again this week, with the return to pole position of Coldplay's A Rush Of Blood To The Head. The album – which has sold 1,650,000 copies to date, including more than 39,000 last week – topped the chart for two weeks on its debut last September and returns to the top after an absence of 32 weeks.

A resurgent album taking its cue from exposure for an upcoming single is Busted's self-titled debut. After the number three success of What I Go To School For and the number two follow-up Year 3000, Busted are now getting major airplay support for You Said No, which vaults 45-33 on the airplay chart this week, and helps their album to a third consecutive leap, returning it to the Top 10 after an absence of 10 weeks. Busted peaked at number two in February, has moved 25-20-14-7 in the past three weeks, and has now sold more than 355,000 copies. Five years after a previous retrospective – Together Forever: Greatest Hits 1983-1998 – peaked at number 31. Run-DMC's new Greatest Hits set debuts at number 16. The week's highest new entry in a rather subdued Easter week, it sold more than 17,000 copies, and is the highest charting Run-DMC album since Tougher Than Leather peaked at number 13 in 1988.

Anglo-German techno band Scoter landed their fourth straight Top 20 hit single earlier this month with Weekend despite getting little airplay, and their new album The Stadium Techno Experience follows suit this week, debuting at number 20 after selling 14,000 copies. The album is their first since their greatest hits set Push The Beat For This Jam, which reached number six last August and has thus far sold 175,000 copies.

Although her West End engagement in Tell Me On A Sunday is – initially at least – pegged to a mere three months, Denise Van Outen's has recorded an album of recordings of songs from the musical which debut at number 34 this week. Van Outen has won rave reviews for her stage performance, and the album includes five new songs penned for her by Andrew Lloyd Webber and Don Black.

COMPILATIONS

The first two Clubland collaborations between All Around The World and Universal Music topped the compilation chart, but the third – Clubland X-Treme – was always going to come off second best this week, having had the misfortune to hit the shops at the same time as Now That's What I Call Music! 54.

Needless to say, the Now! album takes the chart title, selling 185,000 copies, while Clubland X-Treme debuts at number two with a respectable 56,000 sales. Although it therefore beats its nearest challenger by a margin of more than three to one, Now! 54's start is disappointing. Last year's spring Now! album – Now! 53 – sold 224,000 copies on its first week, while Now! 48 (spring 2001), Now! 45 (spring 2000) and Now! 42 (spring 1999) had first week sales of 300,000, 200,000 and 213,000 respectively. The only consolation for Now! 54 – which features 42 recent and current hits including number one hits such as All The Things She Said (ATU), If You're Not The One (Daniel Bedingfield) and Sound Of The Underground (Girls Aloud) – is that it sold considerably more copies last week than the rival Hits 55 has thus far sold in three weeks on release. Hits 55 dips 1-4 on the chart, with 30,000 sales in the week raising its overall sales to 114,500.

Completing a trio of new entries at the top of the chart, the latest Ministry Of Sound set, Back To The Old Skool: Club Classics makes its maiden appearance at number three. Featuring hits such as U Sure Do by Strike, The Real Thing by Toni Di Bart and Keep Warm by Jinny, it provides the Ministry Of Sound with its third number three compilation in a matter of weeks, emulating The Annual Spring 2003 and Trance Nation Future.
