SINGLES COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

In Music Week's recap of the 100 biggest sellers of 2002, we noted that only 12 of them were dance records, a third as many as in 2000. Since then, dance music has continued to decline but there are some encouraging signs, with Room 5's Make Luv only recently completing a four-week stint at the top, Junior Senior's Move Your Feet spending nine weeks in the Top 10 while selling 227,000 copies and Tomcraft debuting at number one this week with Loneliness.

Selling a tad more than 36,500 copies, Loneliness provides the second number one to date for Ministry Of Sound's four-year-old imprint, some six months after DJ Sammy, Yannou and Do scored its first with Heaven. Tomcraft is German DJ Thomas Bruckner and Loneliness is the first number one by a German act since Fragma topped with Toca's Miracle in 2000. Both discs were originally instrumentals onto which have been grafted vocals by British female singers – Coco on Toca's Miracle and Vivian on Loneliness.

The last six number ones all spent more than one week on top – but Busted's You Said No breaks the streak. Dipping 1-4 this

When it was released as a single in its own right 10 years ago, Shape Of My Heart was a resounding failure for Sting, peaking at number 57. But it provided the basis of the Sugababes' number 11 hit Shape a couple of months ago, and also powers Craig David's Rise & Fall, which debuts at number two this week, with a sampled guitar riff and a re-sung vocal from the veteran Police man. Rise & Fall is the third and biggest hit so far from David's sophomore album Slicker Than Your Average, and has provided the album with a new lease of life. It has slipped as low as number 117 and was selling only 1,500 copies a week but it has increased its sales and climbed the chart for six weeks in a row since then. It moves 31-29 this week, while increasing sales week-on-week by a massive 75.7% to more than 10,500.

Stretching his run of Top 10 records to 24 in a row – 16 of them as a member of Boyzone – Ronan Keating returns to the chart with The Long Goodbye, which debuts at number three. It is the fourth single from Keating's current album Destination, and although it was written by Keating and fellow Irish singer Paul Brady, it was a number one country hit and a number 39 Hot 100 hit in America for Brooks & Dunn last year.

There are bigger debuts on the chart this week but no apologies for finishing with a mention of country veteran Johnny Cash, who debuts at number 42 with his double A-sided single pairing covers of Nine Inch Nails' Hurt and Depeche Mode's Personal Jesus. The 71-year-old last saw singles chart action 27 years ago. Cash's latest album American IV: The Man Comes Around comprises only of covers – and coincidentally, Depeche Mode man Martin L. Gore's second album of covers, Counterfeit 2 came out last week, though it manages to debut only at a lowly number 102.

ALBUMS COMMENTARY

by ALAN JONES

Hot on the heels of his number one single Stop Living The Lie and the number three follow-up Don't Let Go, David Sneddon snares the week's highest album chart debut. Sneddon enters at number five with Seven Years...Ten Weeks, so called to draw attention to the fact that although he came to prominence as the winner of the 10-week long TV talent show Fame Academy, the 24-year-old Glaswegian was working at his craft for seven years prior to getting his big break. Seven Years...Ten Weeks comprises 13 songs, all written solely by Sneddon, and sold 34,500 copies last week. Scots are fiercely loyal to their own, and Sneddon's album was the runaway number one north of the border last week, outselling its nearest competitor (White Stripes' Elephant) by a massive 96.3%. Scotland accounted for 9.3% of total album sales last week but provided 25.1% of Sneddon's sales.

With Rock Your Body shaping up to be another massive hit for Justin Timberlake when it is released in a fortnight, his debut solo album Justified scuttles back to the top of the chart. The album, which was released exactly six months ago, first topped the chart in February, and returned to the summit in March. It is the first album to enjoy three separate reigns at number one since 1999, when Shania Twain's Come On Over also rose to the top on three occasions. Justified increased its sales by 22% week-on-week to 48,000 last week, and has thus far sold 826,000 copies. Its chart placings so far: 6-2-2-39-52-59-60-56-53-26-8-2-1-1-2-2-1-3-6-7-1-12-7-3-2-1.

Justified was one of four artist albums to sell more than 40,000 copies last week. In the same week in 2002 and 2001 just one album breached the 40,000 mark, and in 2000 no album sold more than 31,000. Thanks to increasingly deep discounting, an unseasonal flurry of hot new releases and the maturation of several sleeper albums from 2002, some

SALES UPDATE

VERSUS LAST WEEK: +13.1%

YEAR TO DATE VERSUS LAST YEAR: +13.0%

2,685,000 artist and compilation albums were sold last week, an increase of 11% week-on-week to the fifth highest level of the year. Compared to the same week in 2002, overall album sales were up 29.8% last week, with artist albums surging by 38% and compilations claiming a more modest 8.3% advance. By contrast, the singles market last week was down 37.3% on the same week in 2002.

David Sneddon claims top honours among the new releases with his debut Seven Years...Ten Weeks, and there are also Top 20 debuts for albums by Fleetwood Mac, the Yeah Yeah Yeahs, Macy Gray, Evanescence and Goldfrapp.

Say You Will is the first Fleetwood Mac album to feature Stevie Nicks and Lindsey Buckingham in 16 years, though stalwart Christine McVie is sadly absent. The album debuts at number six with sales of more than 34,000, and stretches Fleetwood Mac's chart career to an impressive 35 years. By contrast, Fever To Tell is the Yeah Yeah Yeahs' debut album. The New York rockers have been subject to much hype from the music press, and are widely regarded as the hottest new band since the White Stripes. Fever To Tell sold more than 22,000 copies last week to debut at number 13. Evanescence have also been getting much praise for their debut album Fallen, which debuts at number 19, with 15,500 buyers.

COMPILATIONS

Already on schedule to become the least successful Now! compilation for seven years, Now That's What I Call Music! 54 suffered a further steep decline in its third week in the shops, dipping 40% week-on-week to less than 54,000 sales. On the plus side, it still remains mass vely ahead of its nearest challenger, Back To The Old Skool - Club Classics, which sold slightly over 33,000 copies. And, although it may not measure up to the 20 most recent albums in the series in terms of its sales after three weeks, Now! 54 is the biggest selling compilation of the year to date, with 328,000 buyers thus far, putting it 90,000 ahead of the runner-up, which is the 8 Mile OST.

Smash Hits, the magazine which inspired the album series of the same name is now 25 years old, whilst the albums themselves have seen regular events since 1990. The albums tend to reflect recent chart hits but the new Smash Hits - The Reunion set covers the entire history of the magazine, placing tracks by veterans like Adam & The Ants, the Human League and Blondie alongside Liberty X, Blue and Westlife. It could have backfired, but in fact the album sold 18,000 copies last week, to debut at number four. That is a higher debut than the last Smash Hits title - I Luv Smash Hits, which entered at number five in February and peaked at number two.

While The Very Best Of Pure R&B - Summer 2003 holds firm at number five and has sold 125,000 copies in the last five weeks, it is joined in the Top 10 by two more albums of contemporary urban music. Sony's Nu Soul debuts at number eight with 13,000 buyers, and Urban Kiss 2003 - the third Urban Kiss album - sold 14,500 to steal sixth spot.
