As used by Top Of The Pops and Radio One

Chart compiled from actual sales last Sunday to Saturday across a sample of more than 4,000 UK stores. The Official UK Charts Company 2003. Produced with BPI and BARD cooperation.

6. Eminem The Eminem Show album has been out for more than a year and has sold 1.25m copies, but it surrenders its fourth hit single this week in the form of Business. Debuting at six, it is the highest-ranked single in the chart with a predominantly male vocal and is the rapper's 11th straight Top 10 hit.

10. Kym Marsh

With her debut solo album Standing Tall due to drop in a week, Kym Marsh registers her second hit single with Come On Over. This week, but it's number 10 debut is well short of Crys' peak of two.

21. Simply Red

Almost registering back-to-back Top 20 hits for the first time since 1993, Simply Red follow-up the number two smash Summ'ise with a more modest number 21 placing for Fake. It helps their Home album to re-enter the Top 40 after a five-week absence. Since its release in March, the album has sold more than 290,000 - more than double the 135,000 tally of It's Only Love.

The Official UK Singles Chart is produced in co-operation with the BPI and BARD, based on a sample of more than 4,000 record outlets. Incorporating 7-inch, 12-inch cassette and CD singles sales.

2. The Darkness
Top 5 with legends Def Leppard and Deep Purple, as well as Robbie Williams, helped The Darkness to land a number 11 sales hit with their recent single Growing On Me despite miserly support from radio and an airplay peak of 120. Permission to Land fares even better this week, entering the chart at number two.

4. The Osmonds
Continued impetus is from the ITV documentary Seeing The Osmonds carries the Mormon group's Ultimate Collection to four this week. That is the highest UK chart position yet achieved by an album by the group, topping the number five peak of their 1974 compilation Our Best To You. Ultimate Collection increased sales by 107% last week.

5. Kings of Leon
The Nashville-based four-piece Kings of Leon, inspired by the Stripes, follow at five with their debut long player Youth and Young Manhood. Its success comes after a raft of rave reviews and in spite of modest peaks of 53 and 22 for their first two singles Holy Roller, Nothin on Me, and What I Saw.

14. Ocean Colour Scene
Ocean Colour Scene's first album as a Sanctuary label act, North Atlantic Drift, debuts at 14 this week, after achieving sales of 15,500. That is a long way shy of the 38,000 first week tally of 1996's Muscle Shoals, which went on to sell more than 1m copies, or the following year's Marchini Already.

35. Michelle Branch
It is small beer compared to the album's number two debut in the US, but Hotel Paper's number 35 debut here, with sales of more than 9,000, mark it as a bigger success than her debut, The Spirit Room, which entered and peaked at 54 last year, on its way to a respectable sales tally of 42,000.

68. Barry White
Not in the chart a fortnight ago, The Collection by Barry White has soared since the singer's sad death. It gained a foothold on the chart last week, after re-entering at number 64, and now leaps to number 68 despite stock shortages. The album has sold 967,000 copies since its 1993 re-release, having originally been issued in 1988.
