3. Gareth Gates
He is no match for Black Eyed Peas or even Dido but Gareth Gates' contralto fairly lands this week's highest new entry, debuting at the top with Sunshine. His best single – a remake of Spirit in the Sky – coincided with the Kinnear's – remains the year's biggest-selling single to date, with 550,000 copies sold.

6. Christina Aguilera
After topping the chart with Dirty and Beautiful, our roaching number three with Fighter, Christina Aguilera lands her fourth straight Top 10 hit from the album Stripped, debuting at six with Can't Hold Us Down, which also features Lil' Kim. Aguilera's singles success has served her well — Stripped

It Lisa Scott-Lee
With her debut solo album Unleashed set to drop in two weeks' time, former Steps star Lisa Scott-Lee returns to the singles chart with 'Too Far Gone,' which debuts at 11 this week. It's Scott-Lee's second solo hit following last year's 'When I finally reached sky' in May.

25 Seal

After topping the chart with his first two albums, Scott got a rude awakening in 1998, when his third, Human Being, peaked at 4-1. His follow-up album, entitled IV, is out next week, and ahead of it the single Gael!

Together has been getting good reviews and airplay - but it debuts this week at 25, suggesting the album will find the going

27. Celine Dion
It is five months since the release of One Heart, the latest, brilliant from Celine Dion, but the album only spawns its first hit single this week, as the title track debuts at 27. That is small beer for superstar Dion, who has 14 Top 10 hits to her credit.

The official UK Singles Chart is headed in by the 88th (or 84th) issue of Rolling Stone (see page 10). Based on a sample of more than 14,000 record sales, incorporating 7-inch singles, cassette and CD sales, etc.
