1 REM
11 months after becoming the first American group to have six number one albums in the UK, REM up the ante and move further ahead of their countrymen, landing their seventh number one in total - and third from three attempts in the 21st Century - with latest studio effort Around the Sun. The album sold 99,676 copies last week, 10.1% fewer than the compilation in Time cold when it centered at one last November, and 37.2% shy of the 110,753 start made by their 2001 client-toppers Reveal, but 20.6% ahead of 1998's affluen Up, which opened at number two with first-week sales of 57,768.

L. Barry Manilow
Media Week
