20 MUSICWEEK 08.01.05

1. Steve Brookstein
Becoming only the third of 154 number one singles this century not to make its Top 40 debut at the apex, X-Factor winner Steve Brookstein's Against All Odds takes advantage of a post-Christmas slump in sales of Band Aid 20 to jump 2-1, even though its own sales are down 79.3% week-on-week. Brookstein's version of Against All Odds is the second to reach the top, following the Mariah Carey & Westlife version in 2000. Phil Collins' version peaked at two in 1984, trailing first Lionel Richie's Hello and then Duran Duran's The Reflex.

2. Band Aid 20
Band Aid 20's Do They Know It's Christmas? retreats 1-2 this week, ending a four-week run at number one. The single sold 21,744 copies last week, to bring its total sales to 1,065,749. It is the first single to top the 1m sales mark since Gareth Gates' debut Unchained Melody hit the landmark two-and-a-half year ago. Band Aid 20 is now the fifth biggest-selling single of the 21st century, trailing only Will Young's Anything Is Possible/Evergreen (1.786m), Gareth Gates' Unchained Melody (1.366m), Shaggy's It Wasn't Me (1.158m) and Hearsay's Pure And Simple (1.079m).

7. Uniting Nations

Finally venturing into the Top 10 on its sixth week in the chart, Uniting Nations' Out Of Touch - a dance anthem by an Anglo-Scottish duo which is based on Daryl Hall & John Oates classic hit of the same title - has thus far moved 12-16-13-15-13-7. Its rise has been powered by strong airplay including an A-listing at Capital B-listing at Radio One and strong support from MTV Hits and The Box. The record is one of 19 climbers in this week's Top 40, a tally which easily beats the 2004 high of 12, set only last week.

37. Jet

Although released only as a one-track seven-inch, Jet's Get Me Outta Here is the highest new entry this week at number 37 and provides the Aussie rockers with the fifth Top 40 hit from their Get Born album, which has sold more than 350,000 copies in the UK since its release 15 months ago. Other hits from the album - which leaps 140-63 to end an 11-week absence from the Top 75 - are: Are You Gonna Be My Girl (number 16), Rollover DJ (34), Look What You've Done (28) and Cold Hard Bitch (34).

REPT MUSIC WEEK ONLINE TOP

All the sales and airplay charts published in Music Week are also available online every Sunday evening at www.musicweek.com

1. Green Day Leaping 13-1 to reclaim pole position on the album chart 14 weeks after it debuted there, Green Day's American Idiot does so even though its sales are down 58.7% week-on-week. The album's resilience is no small part down to the success of second single Boulevard Of Broken Dreams, which is still building its radio airplay profile and which got as high as number two on the TV airplay chart for the Christmas week. Overall sales of 746,354 make American Idiot the most successful Green Day album yet.

5.6. The Killers, The Zutons After featuring prominently in year-end round-ups, Las Vegas band The Killers and Liverpool lads The Zutons both enjoy huge resurgences this week. The Killers' Hot Fuss album - which debuted and peaked at number six last June - returns to that position in a 24-5 leap, helped by exposure for upcoming single reissue Somebody Told Me, while Who Killed The Zutons makes the Top 10 for the first time, leaping 36-6. The Zutons' album, which debuted and originally peaked at 13 last May, has now sold 388,861 copies, while Hot Fuss has shifted 405,349 to date.

9. Robbie Williams
 In the Top Five for 10 straight weeks, Robbie Williams' Greatest Hits album comes a post-Christmas cropper, dipping 1-9 this week. Its slip - sales are down 84.7% week-on-week - cost it the chance of being the biggest-selling album of 2004, but its cumulative sales topped the 1.5m mark last week, and lifted Williams' UK solo album sales tally to more than 1.3m - a remarkable achievement. Greatest Hits is Williams' sixth biggest seller to date, trailing I've Been Expecting You (2.544m), Sing When You're Winning (2.161m), Swing When You're Winning (2.118m) Life Through A Lens (2.061m) and Escapology (2.008m). His last album, the concert set, Live At Knebworth, has sold 579,768 copies.

19. Nirvana
 A catalogue evergreen which had already sold 50,000 copies in 2004, Nirvana's debut album Nevermind is a star attraction of the new sale season, selling far as little as £5.99 in some stores, a fact which triggered a massive 373.6% expansion in its sales to 21,286 copies last week. As a consequence the album - which peaked at number seven, and has been out of the Top 20 since 1994 - rockets 141-19 this week.
