Official UK Charts Company 2005

1. Ciara
After trailing Elvis Presley all week, Ciara's Goodies put on a late sprint to claim the number one spot. The 19-year-old Texan spent seven weeks at number one on the US Hot 100 last year with Goodies, which sold 21,128 copies here last week. The record is a response to Petey Pablo's Free-A-Leek - still to be released here - and incorporates elements of it, hence the "featuring Petey Pablo" credit. Pent-up demand for Goodies has caused two different imports of it to make the Top 200 already this year, the first reaching number 128 in the year's first week, the second reaching number 68 a fortnight ago.

3. Chemical Brothers
The Chemical Brothers' first single in more than a year, Galvanize debuts this week at number three to give the band its highest charting single since Hey Boy Hey Girl got to number three in 1999. The Chemical Brothers are one of the most durable of all dance acts, with a tally of 14 hit singles going back nearly 10 years, - featuring rapper Q-Tip - is the first single from their new album Push The Button, which is released today (Monday), and is expected to reach number one.

1. The Killers
Sprinting past the 500,000 sales mark on Wednesday (19), The Killers' debut album Hot Fuss enjoys a much-improved majority in its second week at number one, finishing 52.9% ahead of runners-up the Scissor Sisters, after increasing its sales week-on-week by 23.7% to 49,433. The Las Vegas band's album has been in the US chart continuously since its release, and is showing signs of going into overdrive there too. It jumps 29-22 there this week to claim the highest position of its 31-week chart career, with sales of 35,993 taking its cumulative total to 885,435.

10. Gwen Stefani
With What You Waiting For still in the Top 10 of the airplay chart, and second single Pirch Girl - a co-laboration with Eve from Ruff Ryders - also starting to get significant exposure, No Doubt star Gwen Stefani's debut solo album Love, Angel, Music, Baby enters the Top 10 for the first time, nine weeks after its release. The album - which originally peaked at number 14 in December - has climbed 32-28-25-18-10 in the past four weeks, and the 13,083 sales it added last week take its cumulative total to 254,577 copies.

14. Thirteen Senses
After peaking at number 60 back in September, Cornish band Thirteen Senses' debut album The Invitation roars to a new chart peak, catapulting 200-14 hot on the heels of their first Top 20 single Thru The Glass, which debuted at number 18 last week. Constantly compared to Coldplay and Keane, they reached number 38 with Do Me Wrong and number 35 with Into The Fire last year, the success of which helped The Invitation to sell 26,506 copies since its release last April.

33. Ashlee Simpson
Rapidly climbing the radio and TV airplay charts, Ashlee Simpson's second single LaLa is out today (January 24), and ahead of it the track's exposure has given a major boost to her debut album Autobiography, which leaps 91-33 this week, with its sales up 148% week on week to 6,180. The album peaked at number 31 in October, following the first single Pieces Of Me's number four chart success, and has sold 59,796 copies to date - more than her better-known sister Jessica's In This Skin album, which has sold 47,841 copies since its release last April.
