

It is an all-new Top Three this week as Sunset Strippers, Elvis and McFly take numbers three, two and one respectively, shunting Stereophonics back to number four

32 MUSICWEEK 19.03.05

1. McFly
McFly's third number one single and fifth hit in less than a year is in aid of Comic Relief and pairs All About You - written by band member Tom Fletcher and featuring a 60-piece orchestra - with a cover of Carole King's classic You've Got A Friend, previously a hit for James Taylor (number four, 1971) and the Brand New Heavies (number nine, 1997).
McFly's first two singles - Five Colours In Her Hair and Obviously - were number ones, while That Girl reached number three and Room On The 3rd Floor got to number five.

2. Elvis Presley
In 1962, Good Luck Charm was the last in a run of 10 consecutive top five hits for Elvis Presley - the longest of his career until his current run which is extended to 12 by the same song, which re-enters the chart this week at number two. On an even more rarefied note, Good Luck Charm is Presley's 10th Top Three single in as many weeks so far in 2005, but incredibly the first not to lead the first sales flashes, having trailed McFly from day one. The average first-week sale for the previous nine Presley singles this year is 24,411; Good Luck Charm sold 27,697 copies last week.

3. Sunset Strippers
A week after Cabin Crew's Star To Fall debuted at number four, Sunset Strippers' Falling Stars' debut at number three. Both, of course, are based on Boy Meets Girl's 1983 number one hit Waiting For A Star To Fall, which Cabin Crew's single samples but Sunset Strippers' recreates. Despite the Sunset Strippers' arrival in the Top 10, the Cabin Crew single continues to fly high, at number six. The two records jointly provide the first 21st century instance of the same song being in the Top 10 simultaneously for two acts.

9. Phantom Planet
Some say the charts are in a state, but now there are two states in the chart, with the Stereophonics continuing to champion Dakota (down 1-4) while the US's largest and most prosperous state California lends its name to Phantom Planet's debut Top 75 hit, which enters this week at number nine, having reached number 83 when first issued in May 2003. The fact it is the theme to top TV show The OC has helped fuel its progress.

GET MUSIC WEEK ONLINE TOO
All the sales and airplay charts published in Music Week are also available online every Sunday evening at www.musicweek.com

1. 50 Cent
New York gangsta rapper 50 Cent debuts atop the albums chart with The Massacre, which dashed to 94,117 sales last week. It is the follow-up to his triple-platinum 2003 debut Get Rich Or Die Tryin', which opened and peaked at number two some two years and two weeks ago, with first-week sales of 47,937. The Massacre's excellent first-week tally comes despite the fact that it has yet to yield a single, although current US number one Candy Shop - which also tops the Kiss TV airplay chart - is due as a single here next Monday (March 21).

3. The Kaiser Chiefs
Topping St. Etienne to become the highest-charting album act to be named after a football team, The Kaiser Chiefs are from Leeds, even though the soccer stars whose name they have borrowed are from South Africa. Very much the current press darlings, The Kaiser Chiefs snare a number three entry this week with debut album Employment, which is home to I Predict A Riot (number 22 last November) and Oh My God (number 66 last May) and number six two weeks ago). Employment sold 74,439 copies last week.

Chart compiled from actual sales last Sunday to Saturday across a sample of more than 4,000 UK stores. © The Official UK Charts Company 2005. Produced with BPI and BARS cooperation.

11. The Futureheads
A fortnight after their excellent cover of Kate Bush's Hounds Of Love earned them their introductory Top 10 single, Sunderland's Futureheads catapult into the albums Top 75 for the first time with their self-titled debut leaping 149-11. Released 33 weeks ago, the album previously peaked at number 76 last August, and had sold a highly respectable 43,352 copies before its breakthrough which was precipitated by the album being repackaged with a free bonus DVD - this instantly brought the album a further 19,550 sales last week.

21. Rufus Wainwright
The Sunday Times compared Wainwright's output unflatteringly with a 'fat cream bun' last week but most press reacted to the singer/song-writer's new Want Two album has been favourable, and he has drawn ecstatic reactions from stars such as Elton John and the Scissor Sisters. As a result, Want Two - his fourth album - breaks his Top 75 albums chart duck with ease. Debuting at number 21 with first-week sales of 13,404, it easily beats his previous best, the number 113 peak of its predecessor, 2003's Want One.
