2. Razorlight Razorlight's debut album Up All Night sold 450,000 copies and spun off five singles - Rock 'n' Roll Lies (number 56), Rip It Up (number 42), Stumble And Fall (number 27), Golden Touch (number 18) and Vice (number 18) - but Somewhere Else, the first single from their upcoming second album, blasts the group into a higher orbit this week. Released hot on the heels of a sell out tour and acclaimed by Q as "a punk rock symphony...a thrilling change of direction", Somewhere Else debuts at number two with first-week sales of 28,527. As this is first week of the combined chart, this total includes 2,310 downloads.

3. Ciara Ciara was the first artist to interupt in the expected string of number ones by Elvis Presley in her debut single Goodies got the better of Presley's A Fool Such As I, although it didn't exactly run away with the chart title - it sold just 21,128 copies that week, the second lowest recorded tally for a number one. Ciara's follow-up 1,2 Step, featuring Missy Elliott, sold more copies last week - 26,057, including 1,781 downloads - but has to settle for a number three debut. Ciara's album Goodies climbs 64-13.

1. Basement Jaxx
With apologies to those who would consider Rose Royce's Greatest Hits and Erasure's Pop as dance albums, Basement Jaxx this week became the first dance act in chart history to top the chart with a compilation, namely The Singles, which benefits from a slightly weaker market and TV ads to take the top spot this week. The album has moved 3-2-3-1 and sold 38,457 copies last week to bring its overall sales to 171,363 - meaning it is already halfway to matching their biggest-selling album thus far, 1999's Remedy, which has sold 338,850 copies.

4. Garbage
A week after the single Why Do You Love Me gave Garbage their highest-charting single for nine years, the US band fronted by Scot Shirley Mason provide this week's highest album debut, entering at number four with their fourth album Bleed Like Me. First-week sales of 27,375 can't quite match their second album Version 2.0, which debuted at number one in 1995 with sales of 31,476, but narrowly beat most recent album Beautifulgarbage's 25,173 start at number six in 2001 and far exceed the bar it's 1995 self-titled debut's opening week tally of 9,409.
